Letters, Phone Calls Support Rev. Calavan

"I have received a number of letters and phone calls from people inside and outside my congregation offering their support."

"I think in my own church, this thing has brought everybody closer together, with a new sense of responsibility to the church itself."

These were Rev. G. Corwin Calavan's comment to The Sun this week, after anonymous poison-pen letters were circulated accusing him of being "soft" on communism, and being affiliated with liberal organizations. THE LETTERS went to members of his congregation at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, addressed to a fictional "Prudence" and signed by "Hortense."

Calavan last week received strong support from nearly 100 clergymen who had assembled for an Episcopal Diocese of California Conference, near Healdsburg.

Their statement urged parishioners to "... examine carefully charges of disloyalty and subversion brought by extremist groups, and the over-simplified appraisal of our situation."

"The statement also emphasized that "... Marxist communism is a false, atheistic religion."

THE POISON-PEN letters said Rev. Calavan has been associated with the Orinda Council for Civic Unity, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and another group advocating legal review of the conviction of an atom spy.

The letters intimated that such associations involved a "softness" towards communism.

Rev. Calavan, 51, was born in Portland, Oregon, and was a practicing attorney there for a number of years before entering the ministry.

He was a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy legal department during World War II, and received his ministerial training at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley.

Before he came to Orinda in 1959 he served for seven years at St. John's Church in the Montclair section of Oakland.

Five Dogs Dead, Parents Fear Children's Safety

Five dogs were killed by poison in Orinda Monday morning within the space of a few hours. The dogs belonged to people who reside within a few blocks of each other in the area of El Gavilan, Las Vegas and Charles Hill Roads.

A sixth dog is fighting for his life at a veterinary hospital. He was found twitching with convulsions in his yard less than an hour after being let out in the morning at 9 a.m.

ALTHOUGH results of an autopsy performed on one of the dogs are not yet back from the laboratory, Mrs. Royce Fowkes of 110 Las Vegas Road told The Sun her veterinarian believed that strychnine was the poison used, due to the stiffened condition of the dog's body which was found almost immediately after death.

Chunks of meat found near Las Vegas Road and Las Vegas Drive were sent to the University of California laboratory for analysis Wednesday. Results of the analysis had not been returned to the detective division, Contra Costa County sheriff's office, at the time The Sun went to press late yesterday.

Sheriff's deputies have warned residents to report any suspicious foodstuffs found in their property or by the roadside.

MEANWHILE dog owners and parents are keeping a close watch on their pets and children. Fear that a small child may put a poisoned substance in his mouth is paramount, but owners also expressed the fear the poisoner may be preparing to burglarize their homes.

Mrs. Ralph Hanville, secretary-treasurer of the Alameda County Anti Vivisection Society, has announced that her group will pay a $100 reward for information leading to the conviction of the poisoner, or anyone poisoning a dog in similar circumstances.

The poisoned dogs ranged from valued pedigreed animals to dearly loved children's pets. Owners of dogs who were poisoned include Mrs. Fowkes, Mrs. Jack Lackey Jr., Mrs. Julie Oakley, Mrs. Elizabeth Babcock and Mrs. John Sabin.

Houseboy, Car, Credit Card Still Missing

The search continues for an Orinda houseboy reported missing to the Contra Costa County sheriff's department last week. Constance B. Dunn, 101 Tappan Lane, told officers that several months ago she hired Yoshio Yamamoto, 39, as a houseboy on the recommendation of a minister.

Feeling, after several months of satisfactory employment, that the man could be trusted, Mrs. Dunn said she and her husband, Louis C. Dunn, a contractor, left him in charge of the house for six weeks in August.

Left with him were several post-dated checks to handle expenses, the family car and credit card.

Upon their return it was found that the car, credit card, checkbook and Yamamoto were missing and that checks totaling $525 had been cashed with a questionable signature.

Is Dam Noise Plea; Committee Formed

"I object to the inability to get eight hours of sleep each night," insisted Robert Davis, resident of 18 Normandy Lane, Orinda, leading off the County Board of Supervisors' discussion Tuesday on the noisy Briones Dam project.

"This is a public project ... the rains can destroy all the work which has been done, and the cost to the public as a result can be tremendous," countered Gardiner Johnson, attorney for the Guy F. Atkinson Company, which has been in the earthmoving phase of the job for several weeks.

"The loss of sleep has gone beyond the nuisance stage. It has become a health problem for Orinda residents," said Manfred Funsten of 1 Kittiwake Road, Orinda.

HE AND several others were criticizing East Bay Municipal Utility District's reluctance to take initiative in shortening working hours of 6 a.m. to 12 midnight.

"We would like to work only one shift a day, but the contract is for a fixed period or destroy what has been done ... it must be completed on the earliest possible day," said Johnson. "The district attorney should be allowed to abate the noise for enough hours to allow eight hours of sleep," declared Davis.

"We hope abatement will not be instituted. But you must realize it is not a one way street ... the courts weigh the benefits to hundreds of thousands of people against the inequities of the people in the immediate area ..." replied Johnson.

THIS EXCHANGE of viewpoints was kept below the boiling point by Johnson's promise that new mufflers will be installed on 12 earthmoving machines being used on the $14 million EBMUD project and his assertion that the mufflers will reduce their racket by 30 to 40 per cent.

He said, "We have installed three mufflers and the other nine will be installed by this weekend. We only ask for two weeks trial period."

He added that a certain amount of adjustment will be necessary for the mufflers, before they will operate most efficiently.

Johnson would not commit himself to any shortening of the earthmovers' 6 a.m. to 12 midnight working hours.

BUT HE said, "Our policy is to cooperate with public officials and residents of the area. We have no program of ignoring the rights of other people ... we are not trying to be arrogant or dictatorial, or say this is the only policy. But this is the most practical means."

The supervisors appeared to be most interested in the effectiveness of the mufflers.

But they also approved the formation of a special committee, on suggestion of Mel Nielsen.

The committee will probably make a personal inspection of the dam project area and make its own judgement of the mufflers' effect.

But, by Nielsen's suggestion, it can also look into the possibilities of reducing the working hours, should the noise problem persist.

MEMBERS include Nielsen, County Administrator Joseph McBrien, District Attorney John Nejedly, County Public Works Director Vic Sauer, Atkinson Company Vice President Gus Steiner.

Johnson, Herbert Waterman, Davis, Norman DeLane, Funsten, all of Orinda.

A union representative, Charles Wilmarth, EBMUD customer relations chief, Joseph DeCosta, EBMUD chief engineer.

Nielsen noted that during an earlier meeting of Orinda Association members and company officials, there was considerable disagreement among residents on whether or not the hours should be shortened at the beginning or the end of the day.

He also added that during the initial stages of the Orinda tunnel blasting, "... the people didn't get any sleep at all, but we resolved the problem without stopping work. ..."

STILL TO BE moved at Briones are some 10 million cubic yards of earth.

However, the earthmovers are scheduled to work at a lower level, within two or three months. A hill will protect the Orinda homes from the noise, The Sun learned from Art Ames of the EBMUD customer relations staff.

The hill is then expected to shut off the disturbing sounds, even without mufflers, he said.

Completion date of the contract is October, 1963.

THE SUPERVISORS at their meeting did not act upon the petition submitted earlier for abatement of the noise as a nuisance.

But District Attorney Nejedly indicated that he will have all preparations ready in the event such action is decided upon.

The supervisors also heard statements by other Orinda residents objecting to the noise, including Dr. Charles Baker and Gordon Heche, the band leader.

To the residents' pleas, Board Chairman Joseph Silva said, "Give them a chance. If the mufflers don't work, we have the power to do something."

New Post Office Won't be Ready By Christmas

Plans for the completion of the new Orinda Post Office on Orinda Way have been changed because of the recent strike.

Construction has been delayed to the point where it will be impossible to move in before Christmas and it is expected that dedication ceremonies will take place sometime in February.

The Orinda Post Office has recently established street letter box service for residents living in the area adjacent to Ivy Drive and Moraga Way where the box is located.

Pickup of mail for dispatch is at 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. daily, 4 p.m. on Saturdays and 10:30 a.m. and 4:45 p.m. on Sundays and holidays, according to Postmaster Laura Mallory.

Superstitious? Beware Today!

It happened once before this year. It's happening today ... all day. Notice a feeling of unease? Did you have a flat tire or run out of gas on the freeway? Seen a black cat that chilled your marrow?

You're lucky if all is well, because today is FRIDAY THE THIRTEENTH!

This is the second time around this year for the ill-omened day. It's last appearance was in January, sort of a culmination to crumpling New Year's resolutions. But cheer-up, there won't be another Friday the 13th in 1961. So if you get through today safely, you can relax, that is until next year.

Those who will admit to no superstitions regarding dates, black cats and ladies, watch out. If there wasn't just a tiny nagging little superstition in your mind, you wouldn't be reading this would you?

Comments Welcome, Sun Editor Reminds Readers

Feelings on the unification of the Acalanes Union High School district and all or any of the elementary districts within its boundaries are running high.

People seem to feel pretty strongly, one way or the other.

The Sun has been accused, by innuendo, of printing only one side of the story—the side favoring total unification.

This is not the case. THE SUN has been printing stories on unification—and unification studies for some four years—and it has printed what has happened at official meetings, as well as the results of studies and reports.

To date, there has been no organized active opposition to unification other than what has been presented by elementary school district trustees—and which has been carried in The Sun.

The alternatives to total unification of the school districts has been reported in depth over the past years.

The columns of The Sun are open to our readers, either through our letters to the editor columns or through responsible statements from individuals with something to say.

ASSOCIATE Editor Dick Osborn this week offered an invitation to any person or any group who wishes to present views on the unification subject to use the columns of The Sun.

"We will, however, only accept signed comments," said Osborn. "This has been our policy in the past and will continue to be so. We will not print anonymous statements or letters."

Osborn said that any group or individual who wishes to have his name withheld from a letter or article may so request, and the request will be honored.

In addition to individual or group statements on unification, full reports of public hearings being scheduled by our local school boards will be carried in The Sun.

Bar Association Favors Court Consolidation

Consolidation of the county's four municipal courts and 13 justice courts into only three municipal courts has been recommended by the Contra Costa County Bar Association.

One of the municipal courts, under the plan, would have its offices in Pleasant Hill, and would serve Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Concord, Alamo and Danville.

Having three judges, it would unify the present municipal courts in Walnut Creek and Concord, also the Danville, Clayton and Martinez judicial districts.

THE OTHER two municipal courts would be located in Antioch (two judges) and Richmond (three judges).

The recommendation was delivered in letter form to the board of supervisors by James E. Cox of Martinez, the bar association president.

The plan itself was developed by a special committee headed by Thomas McBride, Concord attorney.

All judicial court functions would be merged into the municipal courts.

COURT consolidation became a hotly discussed item last year when State Chief Justice Phil Gibson, chairman of the State Judicial Council, reported his council's recommendation in favor of three municipal courts and three judicial courts for the county.

County Administrator J. P. McBrien last April went even further by recommending to the supervisors consolidation of all lower courts into a single municipal court, with departments located in various areas.

Although McBrien predicted a $150,000 per year saving, the bar association's committee did not stipulate any savings.

Hanna Boys Center Has Local Directors

Forty men from 12 Northern California counties will travel to the Valley of the Moon Thursday for a general meeting of the board of directors of Hanna Boys' Center, the western "boys' town" near Sonoma.

Contra Costa County will be represented by John P. O'Shea, 1182 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, and Robert P. Ras-kob, 48 Charles Hill Road, Orinda.

El Toyonal Road Committee Is Making Progress

"We are making progress," reported Don Pedersen, chairman of the new road committee formed recently by the Hacienda Homes Improvement Association to study the problems of El Toyonal.

The road committee met Monday night to study the controversial issue of the what, when, where and "if" of improving the narrow winding road.

Members of the committee, in addition to Pedersen are George Foot, Harold Heller, Richard Hale, Jim Hupp and Clem Forde. Also present at the meeting was Ted Rimer, president, Hacienda Homes Improvement Association.

Both petitions are represented on the committee, that is, those who petitioned for improving El Toyonal and those who petitioned to have the road left in its natural state.

Pledged to be a committee of information, the group will endeavor to study all phases of the problem, interpret the sincere beliefs of interested parties with an objective view at what is best, according to the membership.

The committee plans to meet with Supervisor Mel Nielsen and county public works department officials on or before November 1.

Waldie Will Speak to Builders

Assemblyman Jerome Waldie will speak at a dinner meeting of the Home Builders Association of Contra Costa County, Thursday night at the Concord Inn.

His topic will be "Fiscal Responsibility in the State of California."

Waldie will be introduced by Frank Callahan, executive vice-president of the council. A social hour will begin at 6:45 p.m., and dinner at 7:45.

Former Resident Now in Hollister

John V. Horner, formerly of 3354 Sweet Drive, has moved to Hollister where he has joined Tube Turns Plastics, Inc., as assistant manager of their northeast district.

Horner and his wife and three children now live at 434 Prentice Street, Hollister.

Get Your Flu Shot Now!

Recent reports from the United States Public Health Service and the California State Department of Public Health warns that an upswing in the influenza cycle is likely to hit this country during the fall and winter, said Dr. Henrik L. Blum, county health officer.

He added, "Through the various types of influenza prevalent in this county are rarely fatal in themselves, national statistics show that flu epidemics are invariably associated with a general increase of reported deaths."

During the 1957-58 Asian influenza epidemic, 60,000 more deaths than usual were recorded in the United States in a six-month period.

These deaths were found to have occurred mainly in persons over 65 and in those whose resistance was lowered by certain chronic diseases or other health problems, he said.

Influenza vaccine is at present believed to be 60-70 per cent effective in preventing the disease. Studies have also shown that vaccinated groups lose less working time during epidemics.

To be most effective, however, vaccination must be given before an epidemic starts.

For these reasons the Contra Costa County Health Department recommends that persons in the following groups should consider receiving influenza vaccine now—all persons with heart disease, pulmonary diseases, diabetes, and other chronic illnesses; pregnant women; persons over 65; and persons in especially critical services such as medical, public utilities and educational services.

No mass immunization program is planned or recommended at this time.

Persons in the above risk groups should consult their personal physicians or their usual sources of medical care for influenza vaccine as soon as influenza vaccine is available.

Out of My Mind

The reason I'm Out of My Mind is that my notes to myself, little reminders on assorted & not-sorted papers have gone astray. Probably in the incinerator or stuck in the pages of a cookbook someplace. Oh, Will I ever find, the things on my mind. If it's news you want, read the rest of the paper!

MAD, MAD, Madding . . . Are you a car-key loser? If you are, you've plenty of company. No reason to look for psychological motives. Ladies & car keys just don't go . . . They disappear. So the duplicates. Which last wk. set me back $5 to have two new keys made, only to turn around & lose new one & then, oh NO! But yes, the new duplicate, too which I'd hidden where I'd be "sure to find it" . . . Sure!

The Chris Harnetts have four cars in the family but Ellen still had to call a cab the other morn . . . Having tooled her son around town the eve before, she forgot he'd put the keys in pocket of pants he wore to school next day. Ellen, w/a Dr.'s appt. for baby, had to call a cab. Feel better?

SO DON'T GET Excited but since there's a dog-poisoner on the loose, better pamper your pooch on the front porch or tie him on the patio.

Then there's the new form of Do & Dare amongst the hot-rodgers . . . like the latest in Drag Races taking place in nrby. walnut & pear orchards. The idea, like so, is to see how close (Phew!) the car can come to a tree! Yoo-Hoo, Sheriff, Outie-vous?

Many comments & calls re: Country Cotillion para. last wk. Modern parents are more sensible than some of us suppose & most mothers feel it's the Other Mothers who push & rush things at too early an age level. But not me & not thee, of course!

If you've dgthrs. in your heart & household, read Phyll McGinley's "Province Of The Heart." A solid sermon for sensible (and not-so-sensible) mothers!

Everytime I pick up Orinda photog Wayne Miller's photographic gem, "The World Is Young," I get a big lump in my throat, esp. that last page & dedication to his wife Joan.

In the candid shots of schoolkids, one happy grinning face looked Very Familiar. Turned out to be Tom Gaffney, Miramonte grid star, in his earlier years, whom we met this summer when he clerked at the Village Lucky's.

Spkg. of Lucky's clerks, they always pick the Smilers . . . like Brad Hawkes, Miramonte man, who's doing duty at the X-roads store, packing the bags in & out. Mrs. Brazee is Given Honor In Mexico City News has been received from Mexico City that a former Orindan, Mrs. Howard J. Brazee, was the recipient of an unusual honor recently.

She was selected by a vote of all employees to be named Madonna or godmother of a brand new printing press.

The press is being installed by her husband in the Mexico City plant of Moore Business Forms, Inc.

In a letter to The Sun, Brazee says, "It is the custom in Mexico to formally bless and dedicate a new building or piece of equipment to give it a long and prosperous life. The priest gave a mass and blessed the press."

Afterwards, according to the writer, Mrs. Brazee broke a bottle of Mexican apple champagne over the front of the press. She then unveiled a plaque with her name and other details of the benediction.

The Brazees were active in Orinda community affairs, in the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church and the Orinda Jaycees before moving to Mexico in May.

The suit, charging cruelty, was brought after seven years of marriage.

Mrs. Jewel asks custody of the couple's three children and a reasonable amount for their support. She did not request alimony.

The complaint says there is "no community property to be adjudicated by this court."

Jewel served overseas with the Army in the Pacific theater during World War II.

Provocative New Play Opens at Curran Oct. 30

A star cast and a stirring play constitute the potent combination offered by the Theatre Guild and Joel Schenker in Paul Gregory's production, "The Captains and the Kings," which they will present at the Curran Theatre for three weeks beginning October 30.

The play, written by Leo Lieberman, has been directed by Joseph Anthony, whose record of achievement embraces such tempting tidbits as "The Marriage - Go - Round," "The Best Man," and "Mary, Mary." It deals with a highly provocative subject, the conflict between the old order in the Navy and the new, the unyielding veterans in command, who would apply yesterday's yardstick to today's problems, and the junior officers who contend that there is no time for the status quo when the safety of the nation is at stake.

The author has pulled no punches in telling his story, depicting a situation that has shocked so many thinking Americans. The result is a play packed with thrills from curtain to curtain, which should add stature and excitement to the theatrical season.

Vote Divided At Moraga Board Meeting

Over two votes in opposition, Moraga school board passed a resolution Wednesday night approving an application for federal aid in the procurement of science equipment.

All members of the board were present at the meeting in the Rheem School.

The vote was as follows: Robert Amber, Rex Collings Jr. and Dr. N. L. Morgenstern, "yes"; and Donald Falconer and A. B. Haskell, "no."

In clarifying the issue, Moraga schools superintendent William Knight pointed out that the "no" votes were votes involving principle, i.e., accepting any federal aid for education. Further, he said that this did not necessarily indicate opposition to the acquisition of science equipment.

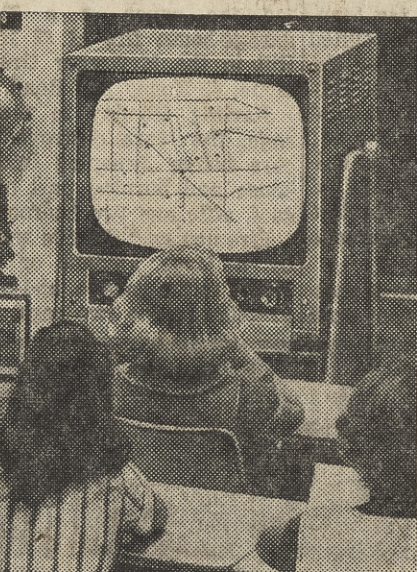

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

Thousands of pieces of man-made sapphire will cover the surface of the communications satellite now being developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories.

These sapphires are expected to protect from space radiation the cells of Bell solar batteries which convert sunlight into electricity. In the illustration, an engineer is covering a solar cell for a communication satellite with man-made sapphires.

This protection is expected to enable "working" satellites to endure the rigors of space for ten years or more, relaying telephone calls and television across the oceans.

Closed-circuit educational TV is a part of regular classwork for children in many schools today.

Telephone people help make this possible by providing special channels through which closed-circuit television is brought into classrooms.

Phone people offer many such communication services today. It's part of the job of meeting your communication needs and those of schools, business and government.

These unusual-looking telephones were tried out in homes like yours last year. They were being tested as part of our research in developing new phones. The families tried first one and then the other for several weeks, and then told us what they liked and didn't like. In this way they helped us learn what ideas you, our customers, would prefer in future telephones.

Red & white picnic box lunches dotting the grassy greens of Golden Gate Park were the added touch for Lombardy's de-Young Museum tour Oct. 4.

Comfortable shoes & casual clothes were the order of the day for the 9-3 benefit which had its beginning by bus from Orinda Country Club.

THE RIDE across the bridge high-lighted by a running commentary by the bus drivers. At the Museum, guests divided into smaller groups for the museum tour guided by volunteers from the SF Museum Auxiliary who were charming, extremely well-informed.

Many interior-decorator-minded guests making notes while viewing the authentic rooms donated by Roscoe & Margaret Oakes, the rooms ranging from austere Old English to Rococo French.

Eyeing a handsome black carved Spanish chest was Edith Scatena . . . An ornate chandelier got a thorough going-over by Jane Peck, Gladys Hamberg & Betty Husar . . . Mildred Law & Liz Stark, the latter a newcomer from the East, admiring the handsome English trays . . . Stella Boyle & Ethyl Tyrrell in a group at the case of miniature silver coffee pots.

A HUMOROUS situation like something out of Helen Hokinson cartoons when the buses departed for the picnic area—in the opposite direction of the station wagons carrying the lunches, a result of confusion over the Hall of Flowers & the Conservatory of Flowers . . . It was the latter where the picnic was to be held.

The intrepid bus drivers retraced their way down a narrow garden road & finally back at the picnic area, laughing passengers alighted for a repast of herb chicken w/trimmings that included a tiny flacon of wine. Hats Off To...

Ruth Walker Who Helps Give the Gift of Sight

A DOZEN ROSES, please, for Ruth Walker, starting her fifth year as a member of the Board of Directors and her seventh year of volunteer service with the Guide Dog For The Blind, Inc., in San Rafael.

HER INTEREST in giving the "Gift of Sight" via Guide Dogs started when she was taken ill in L.A. and was flown home to the bay area. Aboard the plane, with temperate soaring and somewhat delirious, she was nevertheless intrigued by the rapport between a retired Naval Admiral & his companion dog. Illness recovered, she joined the Guide Dogs, Inc., and was instrumental in organizing the Contra Costa Guiders, comprised of bridge groups who lunch monthly to raise funds for the San Rafael training school.

Currently Secretary of the Board of Directors, as well as responsible for the social welfare department of the same Marin training school, the native bay arean also finds time for active membership in the Orioles unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center and takes her turn cashing at the Center's new Terrace Tea Room in Walnut Creek.

RUTH AND HER husband Jerry, an insurance broker, have lived at 15 Dos Posos for the past six years, have two married sons and five grandchildren, one of which is Kathy Hoyt, cheer leader for the new College Park High in Pleasant Hill.

While she helps give the "Gift of Sight" to the blind, she wishes there was some answer for her own precious pet, Cindy, a black cocker who has been blind now for the past five years.

What new grass needs to thrive

The nutritional needs of seedlings are even greater than those of established grass. That's why it's so important to apply Scotts TURF BUILDER® on the same day you sow Scotts seed.

Turf Builder releases its protein-building diet as it's needed, helping young grass build strong roots and grow thicker, and sturdier. Wonderful benefits, for so little effort: just fill the Scotts Spreader with clean, granular Turf Builder, set the dial and walk it on!

My Favorite RECIPE

BY Nancy Black

Hello Gourmets:

Ever try Beef Mirotton? You'll love it! Here's how: 1 lb. leftover beef, 2 tbsn. butter, 1/2 lb. onions, finely chopped, 1 tbsn. flour, 1/2 cup consommé, 1/2 tspn. salt, 1/4 tspn. pepper, 1 tbsn. vinegar, 5 medium sized boiled potatoes, 2 tbsn. fresh bread crumbs.

In a skillet, heat 1 tbsn. butter. Add onions and cook until slightly browned. Sprinkle with flour and cook until browned, stirring constantly. Stir in consommé, salt, pepper and vinegar. Bring to boil. Cover and cook over low flame for 25 min.

Meanwhile, cut potatoes into slices about 1/2 inch thick. Butter an ovenproof casserole and arrange potatoes in crown, each slice overlapping the other.

Cut meat into thin slices. Place meat in center of potato crown. Pour onion mixture over meat. Sprinkle with bread crumbs and dot with remaining butter. Bake at 450 F. for 1 min. Serves four.

See our liquor dept. ad for the choice of wines with this meal. They are experts in their line. Enjoy yourself, and see you next week?

Orinda Parents Club Begins Active Season

The Orinda Parents' Club has begun its year's activities with two board meetings under the direction of its new president, Harry Fledderman.

An interesting program has been planned for the school year. The first general meeting is scheduled for October.

Each year the Orinda Parents' Club sponsors a contest among the rooms as part of the membership drive. The first class to reach 100 per cent in parent membership wins a prize. Mrs. David Seabury, membership chairman, reports that this year Mr. Ruby's fifth grade class is the winner.

Mrs. N. N. Daniloff, chairman of the bridge group, announces that the bridge groups are now formed and are playing. Those interested in forming new groups may telephone Mrs. Daniloff at CL 4-2049.

Fledderman will be assisted on the board by the following officers and chairmen: Mrs. Charles L. Merrell, vice president; Mrs. David W. Bray, secretary; J. C. Benjamin, treasurer; Mesdames Robert C. Johnson, library; Robin Orr Boone, newsletter; David G. Seabury, membership; N. N. Daniloff, bridge; Paul W. Mouser, room mother; Pierre Pellissier, education; J. B. Orindans Visiting At Pebble Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Pauli of Orinda have been spending a few days at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach.

Post Office May Need Rental for Christmas

Completion of the new Orinda Post Office in time for the Christmas rush is doubtful and may force rental of a building to accommodate the additional parcel post load, according to Mrs. Laura Mallary, Postmaster.

Construction on the new 9,250 sq. ft. building was stepped by the cement strike soon after the groundbreaking ceremony August 11.

Although construction has been resumed, it is highly unlikely that the structure will be completed in time for the Post Office to use it for Christmas business, according to a representative of Jack Buchter Associates, who own the building.

Pointing out that the Post Office in the crossroads shopping area is not large enough to handle the Christmas packages, Mrs. Mallary said "right now we are looking for a large building to rent."

Also, Mrs. Mallary reported that two new letter boxes have been installed, one at the corner of Ivy Drive and Moraga Way, with pickups at 6 a.m. and 6 p.m., and the other in the Village Shopping Center, Orinda Way at Camino Sobrante. Pickups are made there at 5 and 10:30 a.m. and at 4, 5:40 and 6:15 p.m.

Orchestra at Miramonte Becomes Reality

An orchestra at Miramonte High School is a reality for the first time this fall, as more than 30 students work together every day under the direction of John Carawan, music teacher at Miramonte until the return of Lawrence Anderson, who was injured in an automobile accident last August.

According to Carawan, the new orchestra is progressing well, and the first concert by the new group will be performed about Christmas time.

MANY PEOPLE in the community worked hard last year to achieve this opportunity for musical expression for young people, and many continue to work to insure the success of this new cultural venture in Orinda.

An orchestra booster group, Friends of the Orchestra, is ready to aid Carawan and Anderson in overcoming the many problems involved in starting a new high school orchestra.

Officers of Friends of the Orchestra are: Mrs. David Coleman, chairman; Paul Pollacek, vice-chairman; Richard Hillis, secretary; Mrs. Charles Craig, treasurer; Mrs. David Liu, publicity-historian; Lawrence Anderson, faculty consultant.

Youth Is Accused

Warren Leslie, 19, of 1345 El Toyonal Road, has been bound over to Contra Costa Superior Court by Walnut Creek Municipal Court on two felony counts.

Charged with assault with a deadly weapon and assault with intent to do bodily harm, the youth is accused of struggling with two state highway patrolmen and firing the pistol of one of the officers during a struggle after a lights-out auto chase in Orinda September 15.

AAUW Will Entertain for New Members

The last "coffee" for new and prospective members of Orinda Branch of the American Association of University Women was held Tuesday at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. John Goldeen, 525 Moraga Way.

Mrs. Paul Garay, branch membership chairman, has announced that section chairmen will attend this "coffee" to explain the many programs offered by the branch. These include art, social and economic issues, international relations, books, drama, bridge and both elementary and higher education.

A NEW addition to the art section for the coming year is the "Safari" group. Members of this group will purchase blocks of tickets to Bay Area events including operas, theatre attractions, symphonies and museum events. According to Mrs. Leslie O. Merrill, section chairman, the group will also act as a "clearing house" for last-minute unused tickets for local art programs.

Women living in Orinda, Moraga and Lafayette, who are graduates of AAUW approved colleges and universities, are invited to attend the "coffee" and to join the branch. Details may be obtained by calling Mrs. John Werner, DRake 6-5478, or Mrs. Robert Stithem, 283-8501.

Rheem Bowl To Host Big Tournament

Local bowlers are going to have the opportunity to roll in the biggest guaranteed handicap tournament in history when the "Great Western Singles Handicap" starts October 23, hosted by the Rheem Center Bowl.

The tournament will feature two divisions, lucrative weekly cash awards and the top 10 winners (five in each division) will go to the Las Vegas Grand Finals where 100 per cent share a guaranteed $40,000 or possibly more.

In all, well over $100,000 is guaranteed in the giant tourney with handicap being the equalizer.

The weekly cash awards total $140 in each official house with the top 15 per cent advancing to the house finals, where the grand finalists will be decided.

While in Las Vegas, the grand finalists all are guests of the tournament, (paid for out of entertainment fund in house finals) where room accommodations, dinner and show are all free, plus they all win cash.

Each grand finalist is allowed to bring a guest who will enjoy everything right along with the finalist except the chance to bowl.

Interested bowlers are urged to sign up for squads now, because due to the winter league schedules, the choice spots are sure to be filled early. Since bowlers may roll as often as they wish, be sure to sign up for several spots.

Everybody Has a Ball at Walnut Hills Country Club

ENJOYING some friendly relaxation after a round of golf are these members of Walnut Hills Country Club, the latest private club to flourish in the area. Although the club has been open six months, building, remodeling continues. The 18-hole course was completely renovated by the new club owners. It formerly was nine holes.

TAKING a call in the club's pro shop is "Dinny" Dinsmore, Walnut Hills' professional. Dinsmore was a career man in the U.S. Army before he came to Walnut Hills as golf pro.

SHOWING the form that brought him the Walnut Hills Club championship is Mal Hensel. The club's first annual competition concluded last weekend. Some of Hensel's competition stand behind him, looking on a bit enviously. Photos by Lee Taylor.

Appoint the Sheriff--- McBrien, Jury Agree

The County Grand Jury's recommendation that the sheriff be appointed rather than elected has the agreement of County Administrator J. P. McBrien.

McBrien told the supervisors Tuesday that the sheriff "... is in fact the police chief of the unincorporated areas of the county."

"There is no more rationale for his election than there is for the election of a city police chief."

McBrien continued, "Legislative action, which has been repeatedly attempted and defeated, would be required to allow the sheriff to be appointed."

McBrien's comments were included in his evaluation of the grand jury's law enforcement and building committees recommendations.

McBrien agreed with recommendations that the county's 17 judicial districts be consolidated and the main jail in Martinez be enlarged.

But he did not agree with a recommendation which would in effect combine police and fire departments.

He said, "... Under such a system, the public safety officer serves in the dual capacity of fireman and policeman."

"A limited number of cities have adopted this system, but I know of no county which has done so."

McBrien agreed that the Sheriff's Rehabilitation Center at Marsh Creek should be enlarged.

Sponsor is the Fair Oaks School PTA.

Effect of Collier Bill Will Lessen

Contra Costa County's 20 school districts which receive state equalization aid to compensate for low assessed valuations per pupil will lose less of it under the Collier Bill in 1962-63 than they lose this year.

The Collier Bill provides that state equalization funds be adjusted according to the ratio of the county's rate of assessed valuation to the average of all counties in California.

Assistant County Superintendent Harold De Fraga reported that the State Board of Equalization finds Contra Costa County's rate of assessment to be 4 per cent below average, compared to 5 per cent and 8 per cent in the past.

On the basis that the assessment rate was 8 per cent low, the provisions of the Collier Bill last year cost local school district taxpayers as much as 14 cents on the tax rate (in Mt. Diablo Unified District) to make up the loss in state funds.

In the current year, said De Fraga, equalization funds are being cut 5 per cent and the loss, under an amendment to the Collier Bill, made up by a countywide tax of five cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

School districts which receive equalization aid are Alamo, Brentwood Union, Danville Union, Lafayette, Martinez, Moraga, Oakley Union, Orinda Union, Pinole-Hercules Union, Richmond City, San Pablo, Shelden, Vine Hill, Walnut Creek, Alacanes Union High School, Alhambra Union High School and Mt. Diablo Unified.

'Beat the Pros' Golf Benefit Is In Full Swing

Play started yesterday at 10 Contra Costa golf courses in the third annual Babe Didrikson Zaharias Memorial Golf Tournament, proceeds from which will go to the American Cancer Society's research fund.

Any golfer is eligible to enter for a $1 fee, and pros at Contra Costa courses reported that a large number of entry blanks have been going out to both men and women players who hope to "beat the pros."

The tournament will continue with heavy play expected this weekend, and anytime up to Saturday, October 28, when an exhibition match at Harding Park in San Francisco will establish the winning scores.

Playing in the exhibition will be Dutch Harrison and Patty Berg.

Lowest gross scores in the San Francisco match will provide the test for northern and central California golfers, while a Mission Valley match will determine winners in the 10 southern-most counties of the state.

State chairman is Robert J. Roos, Jr., assisted by Bob Hanna, Harvie Ward, and Mrs. Fred O. Venturi in Northern California.

Exemptions Are Totaled

Property assessed at $41,793,000 in Contra Costa County was exempted from taxation this year because it was owned by war veterans, churches, private colleges or welfare organizations.

A total of 334 churches received exemptions totaling $5,374,000.

Some 64 welfare agencies received exemptions totaling $2,685,000.

And the total exemptions were $1,234,000 for the county's two junior colleges.

And 22 schools of less than collegiate grade used partly for religious purposes and partly for school purposes received exemptions totaling $1,286,000.

There were five hospitals with exemptions of $855,000; 31 charitable properties totaling $360,000; six religious properties, totaling $184,000.

The exemptions in California amounted to $1,587,731,000.

This is a gain of $41 millions over the 1960 figure.

If all this property in the state had been taxed, it would have brought in $115 millions in tax revenue.

This is the second year that the total number of qualifying veterans has decreased.

Punt, Pass and Kick Contest Is Tomorrow

Practice time is almost over for the local boys who will be competing in the first Punt, Pass and Kick contest.

All those youngsters who have registered at the Lafayette Ford Sales will compete at Alacanes High School field starting at 10 a.m.

Those youngsters who received notice of the contest through the Mt. Diablo YMCA Indian Guide and picked up applications at either Retz-White Ford in Walnut Creek or Howard Eddy in Concord, will compete at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Park starting at 9 a.m.

The public is invited to watch the boys, aged six through 10, test their skills in punting, passing and place-kicking.

ENTRANTS will receive one point for each foot the ball travels through the air, and will lose one point for each foot the ball lands on either side of a center line.

Contest Director Don Cowherd of Lafayette Ford Sales, said each ball would be marked at the spot where it lands, and that distances immediately would be measured by the judges.

He pointed out that boys would be competing against others in their age groups only, thus preventing unequal competition.

JUDGES for the unique competition, designed to offer all boys the opportunity to take part in football activity, will be Sun Sports Editor George Colburn and Alacanes Athletic Director Erwin Mattson.

In case of ties in the competition for the first, second and third place winners in each age group, the competition will be repeated by those boys.

First prizes will be football uniforms, second prizes will be warm-up jackets and third prizes will be footballs.

Federal Aid To Schools Is Subject

Administrators and business managers of 20 Contra Costa County school districts will meet October 30 with representatives of the U.S. Office of Education to discuss federal aid under Public Laws 874 and 815, which allocate funds to schools in areas of federal impact.

In the 20 districts children are enrolled whose parents are federal employees or are employed on federal installations.

Since these installations are tax free and hence provide no revenue to schools, P. L. 874 compensates the districts for operating expenses and P. L. 815 for school construction.

The meeting will be held in the offices of County Superintendent Floyd Marchus in Pleasant Hill, at 10 a.m.

William Bowers, field representative of the U.S. Office of Education, and Thomas R. Wells, regional representative, will attend.

School districts receiving funds in either category include Alamo, Danville Union, Lafayette, Orinda Union, San Ramon Elementary and San Ramon Union High School, Walnut Creek, Alacanes Union High School and Mt. Diablo Unified School Districts.

Children's Cooperative Art Association Resumes

The Children's Cooperative Art Association has scheduled its first general membership meeting for Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the meeting room of the Walnut Creek Recreation Building.

Speaker for the meeting will be Earl Allen, director of art for the Walnut Creek schools. His subject will be "Children's Art."

He will illustrate his lecture with some samples of children's work from this area. Also on display will be drawings from Cooperative Art's permanent collection.

The Children's Cooperative Art Association is a private organization which offers supplementary art instruction after school hours. All new members are urged to attend the meeting and perhaps gain insight into how to encourage and inspire their talented children.

The public is also welcome to attend. Hostesses for the coffee which traditionally precedes the meeting will be mothers from the Montecito school in Lafayette.

Folk Singer Will Appear in Concert At St. Mary's

Folk music from the British Isles and the American grass roots will be featured at Saint Mary's College on Tuesday evening, when Ewan MacColl, who has been called England's greatest folksinger, appears in Oliver Hall.

Accompanying MacColl on the banjo and guitar will be Peggy Seeger, sister of American folksinger Pete Seeger.

Both artists are widely acclaimed for their performances on Folkways, Vanguard, Riverside, Tradition and Prestige records, as well as their numerous concert and folk festival appearances.

The Saint Mary's program is part of a four-month tour of college campuses and concert halls in the United States and Canada.

MacColl and Miss Seeger have been a team since 1956. Their "Singing the Fishing" program for the British Broadcasting Company, on which they sang songs about the sea, won the 1960 Prix Italia for the year's best foreign radio documentary.

This concert, beginning at 8 p.m., is part of a free series of fall events presented for the students, faculty, and guests of Saint Mary's College by the Contra Costa Committee for Lectures, Art, and Music.

Others in the series include pianist Istvan Nadas in November and French philosopher Gabriel Marcel in December.

Leadership, The Hows, Wherefores

"Finding and Developing Leadership in the Community" is Dr. Floyd Hunter's topic for the October 24 Central Contra Costa Community Welfare Council luncheon at the Pleasant Hill Nut Bowl, 3185 North Main St.

"This is a subject of particular significance to an area which is growing as fast as our suburban community," said Mrs. William Ferguson, program chairman.

Dr. Hunter is the acting executive director of the Contra Costa Community Welfare Council.

He was formerly the executive director of the welfare councils in Indianapolis and in Atlanta. For 10 years he was a member of the faculty of the University of North Carolina and is the author of three books, "Community Power Structure," "Community Organization: Action and Inaction" and "Top Leadership, U.S.A."

Anyone may attend the community welfare luncheon by making reservations with Mrs. Lynn Cline before October 21. Price of the luncheon is $1.75.

Officers for the 1961-62 Central Contra Costa Community Welfare Council, a United Crusade agency, are: Mrs. John G. Kelly, president; Donald V. Morrison, vice-president and Mrs. Lee Kidwell, secretary.

MILK Milk is Alaska's chief agricultural product, accounting for 50 percent of farmers' receipts.

120 Join Iona Booth Committee

Some 120 persons in Northern California have joined the testimonial dinner committee to honor Iona M. Booth upon her retirement after 25 years with the Contra Costa County Development Association.

The dinner will be held October 31, at the Diablo Country Club.

Frederick C. Kracke is chairman.

"The response to the announcements in the newspapers of the formation of the committee and to the communication forwarded to Iona's friends and business associates has been most gratifying," Kracke said.

Co-chairmen are Jack Towne, manager Wells Fargo American Trust Company, Martinez, president of the development association and C. P. "Bud" Tanner, East Bay Municipal Water District, Oakland, immediate past president of the association.

Paintings On Display At College

Thirty paintings from the J. D. Zellerbach collection of contemporary Italian art will be on exhibit in the Saint Mary's College library through next Friday.

The paintings were purchased in Italy by Zellerbach. The themes seem to be the observance of pattern or design in the commonplace.

Ivan Mosca's Vue di Venice is outstanding because of its lush tactile quality.

Niko's La Passeggiata is reminiscent of the whimsical forms of Klee and Frankfurter's Vico Veneziano catches the striking melancholy of De Chirico without resorting to the distortion of perspective common to much of the earlier artist's work.

5¢ Per Day Book Fine

The loan period for books borrowed from the Contra Costa County Library branches, stations, bookmobiles, and the Central-Pleasant Hill Library will be extended from two weeks to three weeks, effective next Monday.

Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, county librarian, said she hopes this extended time will cut down the number of overdue books in cases where it is a hardship for people to get their books back within a shorter time. The extra week will also cut the cost in staff time, materials, and postage expended in sending overdue notices.

Studies have indicated that the majority of library patrons return books before they are due, visiting the libraries more frequently than every two weeks in order to borrow more books. These individuals will not be affected by the longer loan periods.

"Steps to recover books—the sending of overdue notices, levying of fines, house calls by messenger, and the more drastic measure taken recently of filing suit in small claims courts where all other means have failed—are taken only in the interest of maximum service," Mrs. Hellum said.

Overdue books constitute a small percentage of the more than two million books borrowed from the county libraries each year. But numerically the number is large, and in most cases they are books which are in demand.

At the same time the loan period is extended, charges on overdue books will be increased to five cents a day, excepting Sundays and holidays, by order of the board of supervisors.

This conforms to the charge made by most other library systems.

Moral Responsibility — Our Ministers' Duty

Did you read the story in the last issue of The Sun about the local minister who was anonymously charged with being "soft" on communism and criticized for his membership in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People?

This Episcopal minister was also criticized for his support of the local Orinda Council for Civic Unity which the anonymous publication, circulated among the minister's parishioners, call a "communist front fomenting racial strife."

THIS REMINDS us of another minister, in another church, just a few years ago, who was forced to move because of this same sort of innuendo . . . these same tactics.

It is up to our ministers, of all faiths and denominations, to be our conscience. This we expect of them, and this they are consecrated to.

We expect them to provide us with moral leadership on a personal and community level.

In a conservative community, such as ours, this frequently takes real courage on the part of our ministers.

But would we want it any other way? Are we afraid to hear our conscience speak, to tell us what is right and wrong in personal, community and world affairs?

CERTAINLY there are differences of opinion on individual issues. Such differences need to be brought out in the open.

But wouldn't it be a terrible situation if our ministers—or for that matter our newspapers and other news media—were muzzled, or perhaps worse, constantly gave in to local pressure?

Each person must do what he feels is right, but there is a right and a wrong to present your convictions. Certainly the anonymous letter or circular is not the way to do it. If we do not agree with a statement or idea, certainly we do not have to hide behind the cloak of anonymity in presenting our views.

THE SUN will print letters to the editor with "name withheld by request," but we do not like to do so. In each case, however, the letter must be signed before we will print it. We will not print anonymous letters.

But let us remember the important issue here. It is the right and duty of our ministers to speak out as they see fit, to be our moral as well as spiritual leaders.

Disagree with them we may, but we should certainly do so in an honorable and moral way.

And anonymous circulars are not the answer.

Have You Checked This?

National Fire Prevention Week is here again, and we'll bet you didn't even know it!

We'll also bet that there are a couple of things you should do about fire loss that you haven't. If you have, you are certainly in the minority!

For instance, suppose a fire should come along next week, and completely destroy one or two rooms of your house. Could you tell the insurance company what you had in those rooms?

Few people can.

ASSUMING that you are adequately insured against loss, there is another equally important step to take.

You should list all items in your home, their description and their value.

This will serve two purposes. In case of theft you can describe the missing items.

In case of fire, you have an accurate record to present to the insurance company. They'll be so amazed they'll probably pay you in full, right on the spot.

NOW, while you are going about your house taking inventory, why not combine another task with it. Why not check your wiring, your garage, your closets for fire hazards.

If you find any (like weeds around the incinerator) then clean them up.

And maybe you won't need that fire insurance policy after all.

The Staff Corner Caught Between

By NORMAN COLBY

Even in our own communities, people are learning it's sometimes the easier out to adopt the philosophy of the Fascist or Communist.

In that event, you may find your viewpoints quite justifiably ignored, and your family quite understandably ostracized.

But, as one local clergyman found out, the path of liberal "in-betweenism" draws the fiery wrath of both extreme camps.

A COMMUNIST may hold a certain grudging respect for a Fascist or authoritarian theorist, perhaps due to the underlying similarity of their viewpoints regarding man's ability to manage his own affairs.

But a Communist has nothing but contempt for the liberal middle-of-the-roader.

For one thing, the liberal approach, when applied under the U. S. Constitution, steals away the only really appealing aspect of the Communist ideology, that is, real social progress not only for the physically and mentally favored, but for mankind in general.

The Communists do not want to undercut, with the necessity for a revolution by force eliminated. So they consider the liberals possibly even more dangerous to them than the Fascists.

BUT OUR Orinda clergyman discovered that hell hath no fury like the Fascist-thinker who has adopted the mantle of the anti-communist, and peers suspiciously at any activity which is more liberal than his own.

Since he can't shoot the dirty Communist, he can at least give those standing in the political half-way house a hard time.

He can cleanse them by public exorcism.

He can punish the liberal movement by pointing to the few Communists who for their own reasons are to be found within its midst.

At the same time the Fascist-thinker approves he proves the influence which certain members of his own group may gain in the "undecided" camp.

PERHAPS THAT is the trouble. Both the Communists on the left and the Fascist-thinkers on the right regard the liberal democratic theory as untenable and incomplete, and which therefore must go one way or another.

They fear that it will go the "other" way.

Liberal Democrats don't agree. They feel that their view of politics is based on the true nature of man.

Only dictatorship can maintain the supremacy of the state under the Fascist system, they feel. Men may follow the supreme state for a time, but will finally rebel.

AND ONLY dictatorship can maintain a system goes against the nature of man, requiring all men to be perfectly equal in ability and temperament, allowing no place for the more able person.

Under such a system, the more able person can find a job utilizing his superior abilities only by perpetuating the dictatorship apparatus which enforces the "perfect equality."

And, being human, he will use those superior abilities to insure that his job doesn't "wither away."

So, as Rev. Calavan learned (he probably knew all along), the Fascist-thinker doesn't like the liberal democrat. He would rather you and I had only two choices—Communism or his view.

IF HE CAN pin the Communist, label on the liberal, he may bring you into his camp.

This is why the ministers meeting at Healdsburg, in backing Rev. Calavan, were so careful to repudiate Communism.

That such a statement by our Protestant ministers was considered necessary is an indication that our friends to the "right" are making progress.

We Like It Here . . . A Tale of Two Cities Makes a Sorry Story!

By MARIE MONAHAN

I'M GLAD I don't live in Bakersfield. Or call Las Vegas my home.

If this country kid never sees the bright lights of the burlesque town or the sun & sagebrush of Bakersfield again, it won't matter one whit.

As a native Californian, I disown them . . . & suggest that the two cities be stricken from the entire United States. Send 'em to Siberia!

IN FACT, they may as well be 8,000 miles away—judging from the revulsion evinced by the general public & generated by two cities' much-publicized "mow 'em down" stand re: any L.A. intruders if & when a nuclear attack.

PRESS reports of this base rank action traveled the world. The London papers emblazoned their front pages with the degrading story, all of which served to make the American's faltering image even uglier.

WHAT right have two small-fry towns to jeopardize Uncle Sam's reputation—or cast a repulsive reflection on the rest of us?

If all cities behaved like Bakersfield & Las Vegas, America would be long dead, its very life & purpose defeated.

OUR public relations with the rest of the world is in need of a shot in the arm. Not a knife in the back such as was produced by the press releases of the B-LV bomb-scare panic.

It certainly appears that the creation of a Secty. of Public Relations should be a new & very necessary addition to our cabinet.

MAYBE what we really need is a Squelch Expert. To bury the rancid bones of un-American, un-democratic & un-christian behavior.

FOR despite our constitutional rights for freedom of the press, when those same privileges are distorted or blown-up even worse than they are, then it's high time we called in the experts—to rout us awake, too, to have confidence in our country.

Any sizable business employs a PR man these days, but Uncle Sam, the biggest business of all, manufacturer of freedom & liberty & the pursuit of peace & happiness, is still struggling along with a mere Press Secretary & Staff too busy to handle the bunglings that threaten those very same products of our free nation.

THE NEW POST of PR Secty. should be a president's right-hand assistant, a positive & impartial person, a man proud of his people & grateful for his country. One who'd take a solid poke at members of the press who, searching for a new & individual slant on things, feed their own writer-egos by badgering, belittling & down-grading the American Way Of Life, which, however with fault, is still the best one on earth!

FURTHERMORE, the Squelch Expert would let the rest of the world know we aren't ALL Marilyn Monroes, Cadillacs & cowboys.

OR Bakersfield & Las Vegas.

Letters to The Editor

BOMB SHELTERS

Dear Editor:

Your Staff Corner article, "No Place to Hide," seemed to show a negative point of view. Mr. Osborn asked some intelligent people about the building of fallout shelters.

One said he wouldn't want to live with the kind of people who build shelters. If he had perhaps thought of asking still more intelligent people, he would have come across the President, cabinet members, congressmen, leaders of both parties and scientists. They are all working very hard for coordination in a nationwide plan for protection from blast and fall-out.

Well-known newspapers and periodicals are also working to inform and educate the public on this confusing thing.

WOULDN'T IT be better if you, too, gave your readers something positive? Every bit helps to lessen the "reigning confusion." Anything is better than nothing; a $30 shelter is better than none. Which would you rather have—thirty or more dollars or your life?

Maybe the people who don't want to live after an atomic war haven't thought about how it is to die from radiation. Do you realize what a terrible thing it is to be very sick from fall-out? It is dreadful. You vomit for days, weeks. You are unable to keep anything down. You get diarrhea and you are miserable. There is no dying quickly, with no pain.

I KNOW that I would do as much as I could to keep alive. I'm just starting life and I am sure that if I have to, I can manage to live in a "world populated by the kind of people who build shelters."

"We're strong, but if somebody is going to pull the trigger we'll fight back, but we will lose." Not if we get busy! President Theodore Roosevelt said, "Do what you can, with what you have, where you are." Decide right now where each member of your family can get the best protection without any preparation at all. Each case is different: some families have a basement, others live near culverts. Be sure you have a flashlight that works.

Then investigate the true cost and value of a shelter.

I'VE DECIDED for myself that evacuation won't work, at least in our area. Get a few towns of frantic people rushing madly about on our roads, not knowing at all what to do, and you have a huge traffic jam. That's all.

No organization, no food, shelter or sanitation if you did manage to get someplace else, anyway. We should provide for ourselves instead of depending on others, who didn't ask for us in the first place.

To quote a Civil Defense manual, "Preparation to survive an atomic bomb is more sensible than guessing whether or not it will ever be used against us."

PAULA AYERS

CIVIC UNITY
Dear Editor:

The Orinda Council for Civic Unity, according to its bylaws, "works for equal rights under the law, and equal opportunities within society, and affirms the dignity of every individual regardless of race, color, creed or national origin."

This organization was recently mentioned in your paper in connection with an anonymous and scurrilous attack on a local minister of the Episcopal church who is a member of our group.

We count ourselves fortunate to have him as a member, and feel sure that he, like others of us who wish to see discrimination eliminated, is pleased to have an organization in which he can join with others of like conviction for the improvement of the human relation.

A great handicap in the day-to-day conduct of foreign affairs is racial discrimination in the United States. Those who attack organizations which are seeking means of achieving equality are not acting in the best interests of their country or of themselves.

It is incumbent upon every American to combat discrimination in every form wherever he finds it. It is to that end that the Council for Civic Unity is dedicated.

We hope that The Sun will continue to stand with us, as they have in the past, on the side of human dignity.

H. STEWART KIMBALL,
Chairman, Orinda Council
for Civic Unity

Under The Sun Troubles? How Would You Like This Business?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Sun editor and publisher Herman Silverman would never print what other crusading publishers have done, because, believe it or not, he's a modest chap when it comes to his own accomplishments. An Associate Editor, I, Dick Osborn, took this opportunity to print in this space what an editor from Mississippi has faced.

The story comes from P. D. East, publisher of The Petal (Miss.) Paper. This award winning editor recently presented a speech at the University of Michigan. The following are excerpts.

At the risk of sounding immodest, I thought about telling you how to operate the business end of a newspaper, for in that field I am something of an outstanding success. By way of example, let me tell you about my Christmas issue of 1954. That issue was 16 pages. The next year the Christmas issue was 14 pages, and the year after that it was 12 pages. Somewhere along in there I reduced the size to a tabloid, and still had a 12 page issue at Christmas.

By last year I was able to get out an 8 page Christmas issue—that was tabloid, just to clear any confusion. This year, well, I don't know yet. I may just stay in bed. I'm sure you can see that my claim to that of a successful business manager is valid.

My claim to distinction, actually, is two-fold. First, I own a weekly newspaper in the village of Petal, located two miles from the town of Hattiesburg, in Forrest County, Mississippi, and my newspaper has the lowest local per capita circulation of any in the world.

I confess to an abounding ignorance of arithmetic, but I think in dealing with material objects the lowest count is zero. And zero is the number which represents my circulation in Petal. Second, my paper is, to the best of my knowledge, the only one in the nation with an unlisted telephone number.

THE SECRET of my first sweet smell of success was relatively simple. I had reached a startling conclusion: that Negroes were, after all, just people. Needless to say, I was more than a little surprised to learn that everyone didn't share my opinion.

I reached this conclusion from reading the Constitution of the United States, and especially the amendments to it, which impressed me, and wouldn't turn loose from my memory. Having been so corrupted, I was shocked at a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Mississippi, put to a vote in the fall of 1954, which empowered the State Legislature to abolish the public school system in the event of integration.

MY BEST ADVERTISER—who, by his own modest admission, was the leading merchant in the village—told me that anyone who opposed the amendment was for integration of white schools. He was an articulate man and got the message across: If I opposed the amendment he would stop advertising.

I opposed it, true to my conscience; he stopped advertising, true to his word. We were both honorable men.

I stopped to reflect and concluded that success didn't "just happen." I saw right away I'd have to work at it, which I did. In a short time I didn't have a single advertiser in Petal.

Having been corrupted by the Constitution, I next decided it was my patriotic duty to render a service to my state. I did so in presenting an editorial, on April 21, 1955, suggesting that the state symbol of the Magnolia be replaced with the Cawfish.

"Here in the State of Mississippi we are making progress," I wrote, "progress such as no state heretofore has known. Our sagacious leaders are showing us how; they are leading the way. Their aim is to protect us from those cawfish who haven't the intelligence to move backward (as any sane cawfish knows), backward toward the mud from which he came."

The reaction was of some interest, especially the fact that something like five professional Southerners bought subscriptions to the paper, telling me how pleased they were that I'd made it clear to "them niggers as to their place." I was proud to take their money.

IN THE MEANTIME, I decided to support a friend of long standing in his race for the office of county sheriff. He had asked me to support him, and I knew of no reason why I shouldn't.

During the campaign I had occasion to call on him at his home twice. Both times I found myself cooling my heels on the front lawn. Not once was I invited in. Being a sensitive soul, I began to wonder about my social standing in the community.

Admittedly, it took a little time for the situation to dawn on me, but now I know—there are four homes in the entire county to which I can go and not have to sit on the lawn. And to those four, I confess, I'm never invited. In any event, I have a plan. Should my dear friend decide to seek the sheriff's office in the next election he will have my full support—whether he wants it or not.

That same year I opposed a gentleman seeking re-election to his office. My opposition was based on the fact that he had stood on his hind legs in the courthouse of Forrest County at a meeting of school board members and said that whites and coloreds could not meet together. The dozen or so Negro citizens present had been invited to the meeting by the school board members, all of which were white. In short, the gentleman played to the gallery (and the press) and in five minutes did harm to race relations that couldn't be repaired in five years.

MY PERSONAL impression was not a favorable one and, having run out of ideas for editorial copy on the blessings and wonders of American Motherhood, I felt inclined to comment on that act by a real, 100 per cent, red-blooded professional Southerner.

While I've never claimed that the gentleman was responsible for it, I will point out that for two days and one night thereafter my wife was shadowed by an unknown person. I think it was a war of nerves, and I think whoever was responsible came close to winning, because my wife got quite nervous, believe me.

Probably my greatest single step toward my present distinction was taken in March of 1956. Around the first of the month I learned that a citizens council group was going to be organized in Forrest County. The date for organization was set for March 21. I felt inclined to oppose the council, contending that we had sufficient bigots without organizing them. I worked on editorial copy for almost two weeks, and all of it seemed inadequate to me. With my deadline fast approaching, I decided to run a full-page ad in behalf of the citizens council.

I did not attend the meeting at the courthouse, not having been invited; however, a friend went in my behalf and reported to me. The keynote address was delivered by a local attorney, and at one point in his address he saw fit to hold up before the audience the page I had so generously donated. With a dramatic gesture he denounced it, finally throwing it to the floor with the statement that he was going to cancel his subscription to my paper. (Trying to be of service to a subscriber, I checked my files the next day and found that his name had been dropped from the list some nine months before for non-payment. I felt it only fair to report this fact in the following issue of the paper.)

FOLLOWING THE service I rendered in behalf of the citizens councils, there were a few telephone calls.

Those telephone calls were interesting, especially the several from unidentified ladies. One lady advised my wife (I had stopped answering the telephone) to tell me not to stick my head out of the house, else her husband would knock it off. Another lady said to me: "You nigger-loving commie, S.O.B. Somebody ought to kill you." I found it to be such a pleasure to talk with ladies. Shortly after this, however, I had to have the phone number unlisted; otherwise I would never have got any work done.

RADIANT in her chic bridal gown of white brocade, Linda Lou Mather walks down the aisle with her husband, David Allen Rhoda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rhoda of Orinda. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien G. Mather, also of Orinda.

Women in The Sun

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1961

Jane Marie Colin Is Wed to Marshall Berg

Jane Marie Colin, daughter of the late Frank Benoit Colin and Mrs. Marshall Steel Jr., of Lafayette, became the bride of Marshall Leland Berg October 1 in an afternoon service in Berkeley.

Marshall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell Berg of Turlock.

The scene of the wedding, the Chapel of Great Commission, Pacific School of Religion, was decorated with masses of white gladioli and white stock.

Rev. Donn Moomaw officiated at the nuptial service.

Given in marriage by Marshall Steel, Jr., the bride was clad in a formal gown of white silk satin with circlet neckline and traditionally long sleeves.

The front panel of her fitted bodice, elegantly embroidered in seed pearls and crystals, extended to the hemline of the bouffant skirt. Her short veil of illusion was gathered to a Swedish crown of pearls and rhinestones and she carried a shower of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Attendants of the bride were: matron of honor, Mrs. David Kall and bridesmaids, Mrs. Duane Eliason, sister of the groom; Miss Deborah Brown, Miss Abbie Roberts and Miss Diane Saxton, who caught the bride's bouquet.

All wore sheaths of scarlet taffeta with paneled overskirts and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Charles Byrnes was best man.

Guests were escorted to their places by ushers Paul Colin, the brother of the bride; David Kall, Ronald Tonnell and Duane Eliason, relatives of the bride.

Master Ronnie Eliason, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Steel chose a sheath of champagne brocade with a matching pill box hat and a corsage of orchids.

The groom's mother wore navy blue silk with a white feather toque and pink orchid corsage.

Later the wedding guests were entertained at the Happy Valley home of the bride's parents. Decorations in a red and white oriental theme were done by Mrs. Carol Parch.

Trees were hung with red and bells. Standards of white gladioli and bouquets of white peonies were placed about the garden.

A center of interest was a driftwood and floral piano piece backed by cathedral candles.

The Misses Gabrielle Batchelder and Sandra Underwood greeted guests with the bride's book.

Assisting in serving were the Misses Leslie Hillyer, Vicki Underwood, Melody Wilson and Sharon Tilly.

Jane is a graduate of the University of California and a Delta Gamma. She prepped at Acalanes High School and at Anna Head's. Marshall is also a University of California graduate, and has recently completed a tour of duty with the Fifth Army in Chicago.

After a wedding trip to Carmel, the newlyweds will make their home in Oakland.

Among the many pre-nuptial parties were those of Mesdames John Ellis, Eugene Scofield, Melvin Jacobus, Duane Eliason, Carl Tonnell, Milo Ayer, David Kall, Mrs. Abbott Roberts and Miss Abbie Roberts and Miss Deborah Brown.

Mats, Trojans, Wolves Triumph In JV Games

Piedmont handed Las Lomas its first defeat of the season 13-0 last Thursday in a junior varsity clash.

The teams were deadlocked at half-time, 0-0.

Early in the third quarter Piedmont scored its first touchdown on a 20-yard pass. The Highlanders hit the scoring column again in the fourth quarter on a 20-yard end sweep.

Miramonte nipped Acalanes, 18-13, after tying Las Lomas, 0-0 in its opening game of the season.

JIM RAYMOS put the team on the scoreboard with a 49-yard run. He also scored the second TD on a 28-yard run.

Quarterback Pete Boyle tossed a 24-yard scoring pass to wingback Neil Rose for the final tally. Acalanes scored in the second and third quarter.

Del Valle defeated Skyline High School, 14-6, with a last minute scoring blitz.

Skyline scored the first touchdown late in the second quarter, and led Del Valle, 6-0, going into the last minute of the fourth period.

John Shields of Del Valle recovered a fumble in mid-air and raced 60-yards for the tying score. Dave Sargent passed to Doug Robinson for the extra point and the game was sewed up.

The Trojans were not through, however, as they recovered another Skyline fumble. On the first play from scrimmage Jim Lesh scrambled 20-yards to paydirt. Sargent passed to John Schofield for the extra point.

SAN RAMON shutout Alhambra, 6-0, to win its first game this year. John McMillan scored from two yards out in the second quarter for the only TD of the contest.

Continuing the action last week, Antioch blasted Pleasant Hill, 40-13.

Pleasant Hill scored in the first quarter when Mark Mortenson caught a pass and ran 40 yards for the score.

Mortenson also scored the Rams last touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 14-yard run around the end.

College Park was smashed by Mt. Diablo, 39-6.

College Park scored its touchdown in the third quarter when quarterback Henry Dauber tossed a 30-yard pass to left end Sam Martinelli.

LORAN SPECK, College Park quarterback, makes the big effort as he breaks up this Mt. Diablo aerial in the end zone with less than a minute to go in last Friday's game. The pass, on fourth down, was intended for Rich Clough, who had both hands on the ball when this picture was taken. Speck was used on defense only in crucial situations. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

College Park Surprises; Holds Devils to 6-6 Tie

By HEC HANCOCK

College Park, the new kids in the DVAL, made their introduction into league play one that will be remembered, as they held the mighty Red Devils of Mt. Diablo in check last Friday evening in Concord, playing to a 6-6 standoff.

The Falcons from College Park, playing their fourth varsity game, bid fair to become the Cinderella team of Contra Costa.

In playing the CCD champion Red Devils to a tie, they momentarily arrested a Mt. Diablo win skien of 10 games stretching back to early in the 1960 season.

The Falcons have yet to experience defeat in varsity competition.

TAKING the initial kickoff, the Falcons moved 75 yards in 15 plays.

Loren Speck at quarterback ably guided the drive that saw Bob Schreeder, halfback, bang in for the score. The try for the extra point by Dick Larscheid was wide.

Mt. Diablo finally regrouped its forces, and with fullback Dave Jones supplying the big punch moved 60 yards in seven plays in the second quarter to even the score.

Jones slammed off tackle for 30 yards to the 12 yard line. On the next play he banged the remaining 12 yards to rack up the TD. The conversion attempt was wide also.

After the intermission, the Red Devils put a drive together, but as halfback Dwain Adams moved across the goal line, he lost control of the ball. The Falcons' Larscheid recovered in the end zone for a touchback, thereby halting the threat.

A Mt. Diablo drive in the waning seconds was blunted by the Falcons, and they took over on their 15 yard line as the final gun sounded.

BOTH TEAMS stayed on the ground, as Mt. Diablo threw four times, College Park but three times. The Falcons' single completion was the only one for both clubs. A strong wind made passing endeavors too risky.

The Red Devils held only a very slight edge in the statistics, outgaining the Falcons 207 yards to 175 yards, and wound up with nine first downs to College Park's seven.

Speck guided his club with superb poise and skill.

His roll outs, with his long powerful stride, pose a distinct threat to the opposing defense.

Schreeder, Nick Lujan and Art

Miller all moved for good yardage for the Falcons. Defensively, Tim Rhyman turned in a fine ball game.

Jones, Adams and Mike Jones headed up the Red Devil effort. The strong Mt. Diablo team may have taken these brash upstarts from College Park a little too lightly, but it's a cinch nobody else will—now.

Well coached, the Falcons have the desire and the ability to make life tough for any of their remaining DVAL foes. Only a lack of depth hurts.

Knights' Frosh Win 2nd; Mats Dump Acalanes

Las Lomas Frosh rallied to its second win in a row, 14-7, over Piedmont last Thursday.

Quarterback Mike Breuleux scored both tallies on a 17-yard run in the second quarter and a one-yard sneak in the final period.

Pleasant Hill and Clayton Valley fought to a 6-6 tie, both scoring in the second quarter.

Phil Gilmore scored for Pleasant Hill when he blasted off tackle for 45 yards. Clayton Valley had a first and goal on the Ram five-yard line in the third quarter, but failed to score.

Miramonte defeated Acalanes, 27-6.

The Matadors scored in the first quarter when Nelson Anderson romped 25 yards to paydirt. In the second period Anderson scored again on a 25-yard jaunt. Tom Archer caught a pass and ran 50 yards for the third TD.

Acalanes scored in the third quarter as Julius Spencer smashed 5 yards for the tally. San Ramon used all four strings in defeating Alhambra, 26-13.

Wingback Jim Parker and Denny Daoust caught scoring passes in the first quarter and Rick Lang scored the third touchdown in the second quarter.

College Park was defeated by Antioch, 14-0.

The Falcons came within five yards of a touchdown in the third quarter, but were forced back because of penalties.

College Park penetrated the Antioch defense twice in the fourth quarter, but interceptions halted the drives.

Del Valle was idle last week after winning its opening game two weeks ago by defeating Acalanes, 14-7.

Undefeated Miramonte, Las Lomas Host FAL Openers

Miramonte, Las Lomas Should Open with Wins

In the opening Foothill Athletic League games, Las Lomas and Miramonte are the unanimous choices of The Sun's sports staff to pick up wins today.

All four agree that Miramonte will get a good fight from winless San Ramon before winning its fourth game of the season.

They also think Las Lomas should be able to handle point-less Acalanes quite easily.

In the CCD, Pleasant Hill is an all-four pick to win its fourth straight against the Spartans of Pacifica.

The College Park-Antioch game has split The Sun's experts at 2-2. Even the point spread is even, 14-14. So the game is rated a complete toss-up, and all even.

It's the first time this year the foursome has been so evenly divided.

LAST WEEK the four were divided on the Pleasant Hill-Antioch game, but the point spread was 9-8 for Antioch, making the Panthers a one-point favorite.

In junior college action, Diablo Valley College is picked to defeat Hartnell College for its fourth straight win of the season and seventh over two seasons.

The foursome is divided on the Cal-Washington game, but the point spread gives the nod to Washington.

Stanford, the Raiders and 49ers are all unanimous choices while Notre Dame is a majority pick over USC.

Last week the "fearless foursome" had an overall record of 28-13, equaling their previous best week. So far this year, after four weeks, their record is 108-56 for a so-so percentage of .659.

For the second straight week, Roger Jernigan paced the staff with a 8-2 mark while Sports Editor George Colburn had an 8-3 for the second week in a row.

AND FOR the fourth week in a row, Colburn clicked on his "Wild Card Pick of the Week."

He picked the underdog Chicago Bears to bounce the Detroit Lions by 14 points (24-10) and that's just what happened (31-17).

Trying for five this week, Colburn picks the Cleveland Browns to upset the hot Green Bay Packers, 28-14, giving the San Francisco 49ers the top spot, all alone, in the Western Division of the NFL.

Stumping the experts last week was the College Park and California ties, the Pleasant Hill and Miramonte wins.

Jernigan was the only one to pick Miramonte to win. He also picked Pleasant Hill. He only missed on College Park and Cal. — and those games were ties.

THE CONSENSUS (25-15) picks for this week's top ten high school, college and professional football games are as follows:

Las Lomas over Acalanes (4-0) — The traditional battle might be close.

Miramonte over San Ramon (4-0) — The Mats could go all the way in FAL.

Pleasant Hill over Pacifica (4-0) — The Rams are really rolling.

College Park even with Antioch (2-2) — Antioch's home field might be difference.

DVC over Hartnell (4-0) — For the Vikings, No. 7 in a row.

Washington over California (2-2) — The nod goes to the Huskies.

Stanford over San Jose (4-0) — Look for a real close game.

Notre Dame over USC (3-1) — The Irish are on the way back.

Raiders over Denver (4-0) — Two in a row over the same team.

49ers over Minnesota (1-0) — Games can't be much easier than the last two.

COLBURN (31-13) — Las Lomas over Acalanes, 13-0; Miramonte over San Ramon, 13-7; Pleasant Hill over Pacifica, 26-6; Antioch over College Park, 19-12; DVC over Hartnell, 20-13; Washington over San Jose State, 21-10; Stanford over USC, 24-21; Raiders over Denver, 31-21; 49ers over Minnesota, 35-10.

HANCOCK (27-13) — Las Lomas over San Ramon, 20-6; Pleasant Hill over Antioch, 13-7; DVC Hill over Pacifica, 20-6; College over Hartnell, 21-14; Washington over San Jose State, 21-10; Notre Dame over USC, 24-21; Raiders over Denver, 28-21; 49ers over Minnesota, 31-7.

ANDERSON (25-15) — Las Lomas over Acalanes, 21-0; Miramonte over San Ramon, 7-6; Pleasant Hill over Pacifica, 14-7; Antioch over College Park, 13-6; DVC over Hartnell, 13-0; California over Washington, 14-12; Stanford over San Jose State, 21-12; USC over Notre Dame, 21-13; Raiders over Denver, 35-27; 49ers over Minnesota, 35-12.

JERNIGAN (25-15) — Los Lomas over Acalanes, 21-6; Miramonte over San Ramon, 20-17; Pleasant Hill over Pacifica, 14-7; Antioch over College Park, 13-6; DVC over Hartnell, 13-0; California over Washington, 14-12; Stanford over San Jose State, 20-14; Notre Dame over USC, 30-21; Raiders over Denver, 38-16; 49ers over Minnesota, 48-21.

Vikings Roll to Third Win, 35-0

Diablo Valley College opened its 1961 Coast Conference season with a bang last Saturday night by routing Foothill College, 35-0, at Los Altos.

Tomorrow DVC hosts Hartnell College at the Pleasant Hill High School field at 8 p.m.

It was the third straight win of the campaign for the Vikings and their sixth in a row over the past two seasons.

The hosting Owls, also 2-0 in non-league play, trailed by only one touchdown, 7-0, at the half, but it was all DVC in the second half.

A 13-YARD pass play from quarterback Tom Strain to halfback Pete Demos gave the Vikes their first quarter score. Strain also booted the extra point.

Another Strain aerial gave the Vikings their second score midway through the third quarter.

This one was a 12-yarder to end John Rodgers, who out-fought three Owl defenders for the ball.

Strain picked up the second of three conversions to give DVC a 14-0 lead.

GUARD Bob Douglass set the next Viking TD when he fell on an Owl fumble on the Foothill eight-yard line. Larry Scott got the six points from one yard out.

The fourth DVC touchdown was also scored through the air. This time quarterback Lee Grichuhin did the tossing and he connected with end Smiley Verduzco on a 35-yard toss.

Reserve quarterback Mel Hollen kicked the extra point.

Tackle Mike Berry got into the scoring act when he recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for the Vikes' final six points.

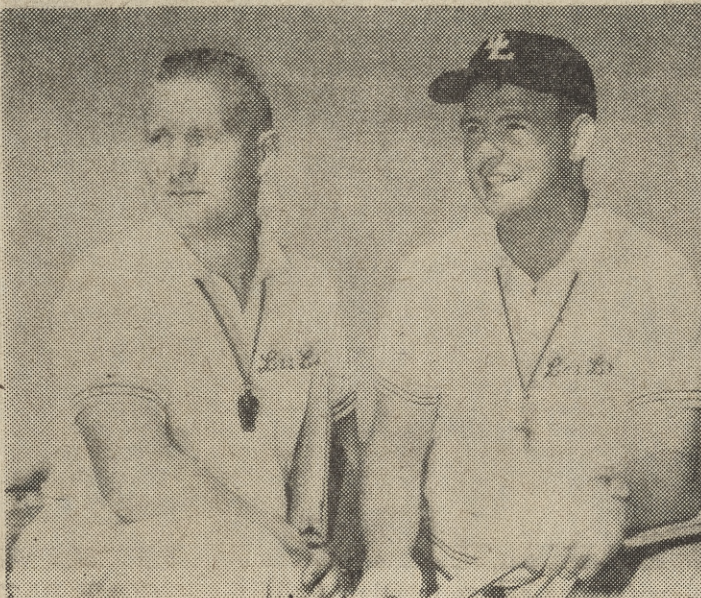

Bill Davis broke through from his linebacker spot to block the kick.

Hollen added his second PAT to make the final score 35-0.

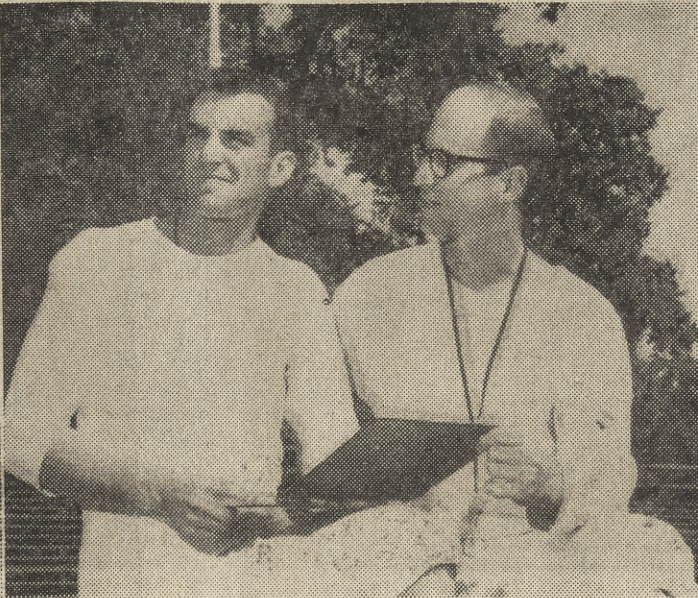

The Vikings, who scored three times through the air, completed 14 of 27 tosses for 192 yards.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1961

and Buzz Williams of Acalanes will be going all out to win the big one in tonight's battle at the Las Lomas field. On the basis of non-league play, Las Lomas will go into the game a big favorite. Sun photos by Bob Rush.

Mats Dump Vallejo for Third Win

Miramonte, well on its way to an undefeated season, rolled to its third non-league win last Friday as they walloped Vallejo, 21-13, in that city.

The undefeated Matadors had a 21-0 lead before the Apaches got on the scoreboard.

The Mats now have a string of five straight wins going for them and are unbeaten in six starts.

After their fine start this season, the Mats have to be rated a top contender for the Foothill title.

Among FAL teams, only Las Lomas has managed to win a game this season.

The other five FAL teams have one win and two ties between them. The Mats' 3-0 record is better than all five FAL teams put together.

Against Vallejo, the Matadors combined a consistent, well-balanced offense with another good defensive performance.

Miramonte rolled up 248 yards to 139 for Vallejo.

Following a scoreless first period, the Mats quickly scored in the second quarter, with Bob Miller scoring on a 19-yard pass play from Tom Gaffney.

Jim Lewis added the first of his three PAT's and the locals led 7-0.

Later in the quarter Dean Higler gave Miramonte a 14-0 halftime bulge when he slammed over from four yards out.

Kent Miller put the Mats three touchdowns up when he picked off a Vallejo aerial late in the third quarter and raced 30 yards for the clinching touchdown.

Vallejo scored its two touchdowns on long pass plays, but they never really threatened the Mats. The scoring plays were strictly a case of too little and much too late.

The Mats allowed only three first downs in the game, as Vallejo found the going real rough most of the time.

JERNIGAN (25-15) — Los Lomas over Acalanes, 21-6; Miramonte over San Ramon, 20-17; Pleasant Hill over Pacifica, 14-7; Antioch over College Park, 13-6; DVC over Hartnell, 13-0; California over Washington, 14-12; Stanford over San Jose State, 20-14; Notre Dame over USC, 30-21; Raiders over Denver, 38-16; 49ers over Minnesota, 48-21.

Shelton's Passing Gives Rams 31-7 Win Over Antioch

Quarterback Nelson Shelton led Pleasant Hill to its third lopsided win in a row, as the Rams blasted Antioch, 31-7, last Friday night at Antioch.

The Panthers, rated by many the top team in the Contra Costa division, were never in the lead, as Pleasant Hill took a 19-7 halftime lead.

Shelton completed eight of 12 passes for 104 yards and three touchdowns.

HALFBACK Jim Stephenson scored twice, as did halfback Dave Clark.

Shelton's payoff pitches all came in the first half.

The first TD aerial was a 19-yarder to end Vic Mann in the first period. The play culminated a 56-yard drive. Halfback Dave West missed the extra point attempt.

Clark scored the first of his two touchdowns in the second period when he pulled in a 15-yard pass from Shelton to finish off a drive of 65 yards.

West's PAT attempt was good and the Rams had a 13-0 lead.

ANTIOCH briefly got back in the game when they moved the ball 64 yards, following a punt return in the second quarter.

A 20-yard pass play from quarterback Butch Rounsaville to end Jim Calvin was the payoff.

Gerald Circo kicked the extra point and it was a 13-7 game.

The Rams bounced back when linebacker Tom Foster intercepted an Antioch aerial at his own 30 to halt a Panther threat and get Pleasant Hill moving again.

It took Shelton just three plays to negotiate his team the 70 yards to pay dirt.

With just 10 seconds remaining in the half, he hit Stephenson for the TD. The pass and run covered 51 yards and it gave the Rams some breathing space at halftime.

THE PANTHERS could do nothing right in the second half as the Rams sewed up the game.

Clark picked up his second touchdown on a six-yard burst in the third quarter after the Panthers fumbled at their own 30.

Stephenson tallied his second six-pointer of the evening with less than a minute remaining in the final period when he scored from four yards out.

Pleasant Hill picked up 17 first downs against a meager four by Antioch.

Del Valle Wins Fourth Straight Game, 28-13

By DAVE ANDERSON

With four straight varsity wins under their belt, the Del Valle Trojans look forward to a short breather tonight before they plunge into the second half of the season.

The Trojans do not play today, but are already getting set for a tough game with the Pittsburg High Junior Varsity next Friday night at Las Lomas.

Last week, against the San Rafael Military Academy, it seemed as if the Trojans played two completely different games in their 28-13 victory.

IN THE first half, the Academy Cadets, with their superior weight and experience, had things fairly much their own way, driving for a touchdown in the first quarter.

During the second quarter, the Trojans were still powerless to move.

However, with two minutes remaining in the half, the Trojans got the ball on the Cadets' 25 on an intercepted pass.

Del Valle drove to the 10, where Bob Kovats flipped a pass to Max Christiansen for the TD. The same play worked for the extra point to give the Trojans a 7-6 lead.

A minute later, the half ended with the Cadets on Del Valle's one yard line.

THE TROJANS played a different game in the second half as their offense began to click.

However, it was for defensive half Vic Shellenberg to score Del Valle's next touchdown with a sparkling 45-yard pass interception gallop. Mal Cameron bulled over center for the extra point.

Del Valle then marched 56 yards to pay dirt for its third score with Bill O'Toole rambling 14 yards around left end for the six points. Cameron ran for the PAT.

The Cadets put on a strong drive in the fourth quarter and capped it with a 20-yard touchdown run. The run for the extra point was good, making the score 21-13.

Then in a 53-yard drive, Del Valle scored its final touchdown with O'Toole going in from one yard out. Cameron ran the PAT.

The game, statistics-wise, was a lot closer than the 28-13 score might indicate.

DEL VALLE gained 233 total yards while San Rafael ground out 216. In first downs, Del Valle had the edge, 15-13.

With their first varsity season half over, the Trojans have amazed a lot of people, perhaps even themselves.

They have scored 75 points, to their opponents' 20.

Though resting this weekend, they don't intend to rest on their laurels with four big games ahead.

Thunderbirds Romp, 31-6; Host Oakland Sunday

The La Morinda Thunderbirds crushed Livermore, 31-6, last Sunday at Livermore for their fourth win in five starts. It was their third East Bay Pop Warner League win against one defeat.

This Sunday the Thunderbirds entertain Oakland at the Miramonte High School field on "Pop Warner Football Day" in Contra Costa County.

Game time is 1:30 p.m.

AGAINST Livermore, the Thunderbirds wasted no time getting six points on the scoreboard after being shutout the previous game.

Halfback Roger Montalbano took the opening kickoff, raced to the middle and outran all the defenders on an 80-yard touchdown scamper.

Halfback Bob Voortmeyer smashed across for the extra point and the Thunderbirds had a 7-0 lead with less than 20 seconds elapsed in the opening quarter.

Early in the second quarter the locals capitalized on a Livermore fumble to go two touchdowns out in front.

Middle Guard Rick Sheppard recovered the bobbie at midfield and three plays later Quarterback Bill Cunningham hit End Andy Ford who was all alone in the end zone.

The Thunderbirds made it 19-0 before the half on another Livermore miscue.

Davies picked up two touchdowns in the final period to close out the La Morinda scoring for the afternoon.

His first was a two-yard blast that culminated a 60-yard drive early in the quarter.

Davies got his second on a 12-yard burst after Montalbano had moved the ball into scoring position with a fine 30-yard run.

Mats, Knights Only FAL Teams to Win This Year

By GEORGE COLBURN
Sports Editor

Surprising Miramonte, undefeated in three non-league games, will take on winless San Ramon in Orinda this afternoon at 3:30 p.m. in the first Foothill Athletic League game of the season.

Tonight Las Lomas hosts Acalanes, a team that has not scored a point in three games and has given up 99, in a traditional battle at Walnut Creek.

Alhambra and Piedmont, two teams who could not win in non-league play, face each other in Piedmont tonight in the other FAL League game.

Del Valle, undefeated in four games, has drawn a bye today. The Trojans play Pittsburg's JV's next Friday night at Las Lomas.

Miramonte and Las Lomas appear to be definite threats for top honors in the FAL.

The undefeated Matadors have played an easier non-league schedule than any of the other local Foothill teams and might be in for a battle today.

They have defeated Albany, Pacifica, Albany and Vallejo so far.

Pacifica is a CCD team not expected to do much. The Spartans have won one game in four tries. Albany was defeated easily by Del Valle. Last week's win over Vallejo was the most impressive triumph of the new season for the Mats.

LAS LOMAS, on the other hand, has managed to gain a 500 record going into league play despite having played the ley to a 7-7 deadlock and defeated Pleasant Hill, 7-6.

BOTH teams were about equal in games against Mt. Diablo. Las Lomas held the Devils 7-7 at half, but the final score was 41-7.

The Knights have not shown too much offensively this season. They have scored just 21 points in three games.

They've been fortunate to gain a win and a tie with such a light-scoring team. However, the 21 points scored so far is that much more than Acalanes has managed this season.

As added incentive for the Dons tonight will be the thought of last year's game with Las Lomas. After winning their first four league games, the Dons faced the Knights needing only a tie to clinch FAL honors.

The Knights came up with a 14-6 upset win and Acalanes had to settle for a share of the title.

PH Hosts Pacifica Falcons Meet Antioch Tonight

Pleasant Hill and College Park, teams that pulled big upsets last week, return to action tonight in the Contra Costa Division of the Diablo Valley Athletic League.

The Rams get a bit of a "breather" when they host Pacifica while College Park travels to Antioch.

Last Friday night, Pleasant Hill scored its third straight impressive win, defeating a supposedly strong Antioch team, 31-7. The game was rated a toss-up, but it was the Rams all the way.

Pleasant Hill will be a top-heavy favorite to defeat the visiting Spartans tonight and turn their win streak to four straight.

PACIFICA has only one win in four starts. Last week the Spartans were shutout, 20-0, by Pittsburg in a CCD game.

College Park, in its first season of varsity football, pulled the real "shocker" of the 1961 prep season as they pulled the rug from under mighty Mt. Diablo, holding the Red Devils to a 6-6 standoff.

The race in the CCD promises to be a real donnybrook now that College Park has shown Mt. Diablo, winner of the title for three straight years, is human after all.

With the tie against the Devils, College Park kept its slate clean. Now they have three wins and one tie in four starts.

HOWEVER, they'll have to go all out again tonight if they hope to keep the string going.

For Coach R. V. Johnson's Falcons it'll be a case of jumping into the frying pan into the fire tonight.

The Falcons will be meeting a team favored by many to take the CCD crown away from Mt. Diablo, but has fallen down on the job in the last two games after opening with two lopsided shutout victories.

The Panthers will be out to avenge last week's rout by Pleasant Hill and the Falcons will have to be at their best if they hope to continue their unbeaten skein.

College Park Shocks Mighty Mt. Diablo, 6-6

BOB SCHREEDER, College Park fullback, moves for good yardage in last Friday's game with Mt. Diablo. Schreeder scored the Falcons' lone TD and was their top ground gainer. Clearing a way is Jeff Patch, College Park right guard. No. 78 is Mt. Diablo's Tackle Paul Davis. The Falcons pulled the season's biggest upset when they held the DVAL champs to a 6-6 deadlock.

HIGH LEVEL conference brings together College Park Quarterback Loran Speck and Head Coach R. V. Johnson. Johnson used a shuttle service most of the time as he called all plays, but during this time out he gave personal instruction.

COME BACK HERE—That's what Mt. Diablo Halfback Dwain Adams (23) seems to be pleading to the football. Adams had a sure touchdown when he let the ball get away from him. Dick Larscheid (right) recovered in the end zone for a touchback, enabling College Park to gain a 6-6 tie.

DVC Homecoming Begins Tomorrow

Homecoming week at Diablo Valley College begins tomorrow on the Pleasant Hill campus. This seven-day period will feature three dances, a bonfire rally, the annual alumni dinner, two home football games and the crowning of a Homecoming queen.

The queen's coronation will take place at the start of the week instead of at the end of the week as has been done in previous years, to allow for her to reign all week.

The queen will be crowned at the coronation ball following the football game with Hartnell College tomorrow night.

This year's alumni dinner on Saturday, October 21, will include a dinner, game and dance.

All graduates or former students are invited. The dinner will begin at 6 p.m. in the Student Activities Building. The cost of dinner, game and dance is $3.

Reservations may be made by contacting William Miller of the Communication Area, Diablo Valley College, who is in charge of the alumni dinner.

Hockey Registration Is Open for Boys

The seventh season of the East Bay Junior Ice Hockey League started Saturday morning September 16 at the Walnut Creek Ice Rink.

Fifty eager boys between the ages of eight and 14 years were on hand for the first sign-up.

Registration is still open and all boys interested in playing ice hockey are urged to join the group.

The league is a non-profit corporation of the State of California. Its purpose is to teach boys ice skating and the sport of ice hockey, to educate them in good sportsmanship, team discipline and provide a healthful recreation for their leisure time. Coaches are John Van der Veen and Rich Bonnington.

THIS SEASON practice sessions will be from 7 to 10 a.m. every Saturday morning at the ice rink.

Scrimmages and games will be scheduled on Sunday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m.

Boys who do not know how to skate will be given instruction by the coaching staff. As the boy acquires skating ability he will be placed on a team.

The teams are organized in three divisions, with skating ability and age being the basis for team placement.

All boys will be given equal opportunity to play in games and will play with and against boys of similar size and ability.

JUNIOR hockey groups are organized in Berkeley, San Francisco, Stockton and Sacramento. Some of the boys will play teams from these cities from time to time. Last year our Walnut Creek teams played in Squaw Valley and Stockton.

The league has skates for those not having skates of their own.

Each boy is assigned a pair of skates which will be kept at the rink for his use during prac-

In the varsity division, Joe McIntyre of Acalanes just edged out Del Valle's Bob Reeves with a 9:26 clocking to take the blue ribbon. Reeves recorded 9:27.

A STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF THE REV. C. CORWIN CALAVAN, RECTOR OF ST. STEPHEN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

• SIGNED •

The following statement was unanimously adopted at a conference of the clergy of the Episcopal Diocese of California, attended by 98 priests together with their Bishops, and was also signed by 29 other clergymen of the diocese.

"We deplore the anonymous, unwarranted and false attacks made upon a fellow priest, the Rev. C. Corwin Calavan, Rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Orinda.

"This action is taken because of an awareness of the inherent dangers created by such unprincipled attacks. These dangers were underscored in Resolutions adopted at the Sixtieth Triennial Convention of the Episcopal Church convened in Detroit, and concluded last week, which reads in part as follows:

"... (that) the people of our church be cautioned to examine carefully charges of disloyalty and subversion brought by extremist groups, and the oversimplified appraisal of our situation which they promote, lest fear and suspicion destroy honest public debate and silence the expression of Christian faith in human affairs."

"... Marxist Communism is a false, atheistic religion, hostile to man's fullest freedom, destroying the self-determination of peoples, intent on world domination and, therefore, threatening the peace of the world."

"... It is the special duty of the Church to oppose the challenge of the Marxian theory of Communism by sound teaching and the example of a better way, and that the Church at all times and in all places, should be a fearless witness against political, social and economic injustice."

DESSERTS OF THE WEEK FROM Betty Crocker

Your turn to be hostess? Create a party centerpiece with a big, beautiful Spumoni Cake. 4 layers of deep, dark Devils Food Cake—with a rainbow of party fillings. A marvelously moist cake you'll be so proud to serve. And do try our other desserts for this week. We think you'll like them all.

Cake-of-the-week: SPUMONI CAKE

Bake Betty Crocker Devils Food Cake Mix in 9" layers. Cool. Split each layer in half to make 4 thin layers. Fill and top with Spumoni Cream and chill till serving time.

Spumoni Cream: Whip 2 cups whipping cream and 1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar just until soft peaks form (do not whip stiff); divide into 4 parts (1 cup each). Fold additional ingredients into cream carefully:

- Bottom Filling: 1/2 tsp. vanilla, few drops green food coloring, 1/4 cup chopped pistachio nuts.
- Second Filling: 1/4 cup crushed peppermint candy, few drops red food coloring.
- Third Filling: 1/2 to 1 tsp. rum flavoring or vanilla, few drops yellow food coloring.
- Topping: 2 tbsp. sifted cocoa, 1 tsp. confectioners' sugar, 1/4 tsp. cinnamon.

Family favorite: PERUVIAN SPICE CAKE

Prepare Betty Crocker Chocolate Malt Cake Mix as directed, except add 1 tsp. Schilling cinnamon, 1/4 tsp. cloves, 1/4 tsp. ginger, 3/4 tsp. lemon extract and 3/4 tsp. orange extract. Bake in layers. Fill and frost with Betty Crocker Chocolate Malt Flavor Frosting Mix. Top with toasted slivered almonds.

For a birthday: CORSIKAN TREASURE CHEST

Make it a pirate's birthday—with paper hats and all the trimmings. And for the climax—a treasure chest. Bake Betty Crocker Marble Cake in jelly roll pan (15x10x1") for 22 to 28 min. Cool. Cut into three 5" strips. Fill and frost with Betty Crocker Chocolate Fudge Flavor Frosting Mix, adding 3 additional tbsp. butter. Outline chest on top with gold dragees. Decorate with chocolate gold foil coins.

Great Horned Owl Flies to Freedom

A great horned owl winged his way to freedom sometime Sunday night after a summer of captivity.
The owl was found at the beginning of the summer in the vicinity of the Moraga Nursery by the Robert Bowles family. It was unable to see clearly or to fly, due to a bullet wound in its head.
The Bowles family nursed it during the summer and then turned it over to Rod Bedayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raffi Bedayne of 49 Oakwood Road.
ROD KEPT the big bird supplied with field mice and birds. He had to collect such tidbits for the owl, because as an adult bird it refused such civilized dainties as hamburger or liver.
Rod believed the bird was sufficiently recovered to take care of itself and last week a series of test flights proved he was right.
Sunday night the bird's "dainties" were placed in his cage in typical last meal style, nothing but the best. Rod left the door of the cage open, and sure enough, Monday morning the cage was empty.
Prior to planning the owl's freedom, the Bedaynes had the bird banded. Banding of birds assists the Department of Fish and Game, Washington, D. C., in its study of the migratory habits of birds.
THE BEDAYNES contacted Mrs. Harold Henningsen of Diablo to band the owl. Mrs. Henningsen is an official bander. Mrs. Bedayne said that anyone living in the area with a live, uninjured bird, who desires the bird to be banded may call Mrs. Henningsen at VE 7-7696.
People who find a banded bird should mail the band to the address stamped thereon to aid in the studies of the Fish and Game Department.

Nursery School Moms Learn Story Telling

The art of telling a good story was explored by Mae Durham, professor of library sciences at the University of California, when she addressed the Orinda Nursery School mothers yesterday in the Fellowship Hall of the Community Church.
Mrs. Durham, a specialist in children's literature, discussed the proper selection of children's books, but also offered concrete suggestions on how to hold and stimulate the interest of a child when reading to him.
Mae Durham served as children's librarian for the New York City libraries as well as for San Francisco State College, before coming to the School of Librarianship at Cal.

This Little Pig Was Worth $

A piggy bank with approximately $150 in silver dollars and half dollars was taken from the home of Louis J. Chiodo at 8 Parklane Drive, Orinda, last Saturday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Chiodo were dining with his parents at the time of the burglary.
Chiodo discovered the bank was missing when he and his wife returned home at 10:30 p.m. Also taken was a leather ice bucket which contained between 1500 and 1600 pennies and other change.
The bank was on a bedroom dresser, while the bucket was in a hallway closet.

Birthday Values Are Tops

"Values in quality merchandise which are outstanding anywhere will be found in the Broadway Shopping Center," said B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

Horne said, "Residents of this area should not miss the truly amazing sales events being held during Broadway's 10th birthday celebration, running through Saturday, October 21."

He added, "Our shopping center, one of the largest in California, has been preparing for the 10th year event for months. And the results show it."

He added, "Through the past years, Broadway stores have earned a reputation for providing quality and stylish merchandise at the very lowest prices."

"This same policy will be re-emphasized during the Birthday sale, when special values will be offered by most stores in the center."

Horne added that acquiring the best goods at the best prices, and of making their availability known to the public is a well-developed skill of Broadway merchants.

"Good merchandizing means a better product at a lower price, this is Broadway's secret. And the happy word spread to others by Broadway's customers is one of Broadway's main sources of strength," he said.

Adoption Group Reviews Some 'Problems'

Mrs. Paul Epperson of Walnut Creek presided over a meeting of the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary recently in the home of Mrs. J. L. Otterstein, 229 Warwick Drive, Walnut Creek.

New members were welcomed by the group's membership chairman, Mrs. Albert Bower of Concord.

During a short business meeting, Mrs. Epperson extended an invitation for the group to attend an open house at the county adoption unit's new quarters in the old courthouse, Martinez.

Discussion was held on "Problems Relating to Adoptive Families."

Parking In Broadway Is Easy

The Broadway Shopping Center, celebrating its 10th birthday, is well-known for the ease with which customers find parking space in a jiffy.

B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, said, "Since the center opened 10 years ago, it has had a policy of developing parking, more than enough to accommodate the crowds which get larger each year."

He added, "If you don't find a space quickly in one Broadway lot, just drive on to the next."

"Probably you will find a space very near the stores where you want to stop. This makes even rainy weather shopping easy," he said.

Paneling Is Now Easier for Your Home Handyman

Paneling a room in wood is a lot easier than it used to be, and there is no room in the house where wood paneling doesn't fit in with most furnishings.

About 35 native tree species produce lumber suitable for paneling. Each contains several variations in color and grain pattern, so you have literally hundreds of different decorative effects to choose from.

Before installing your paneling, make certain it is conditioned adequately for interior use. The wood has been thoroughly dried at the mill, but interim changes in weather may have altered its moisture content. Store the wood in the room you're going to panel for 7-10 days before using it.

If you are paneling a masonry wall, attach 1x2-inch furring strips to the existing surface first. Place them two feet apart and use masonry nails for the fastenings. The strips should run at right angles to the longest dimension of your paneling—that is, horizontally, in the case of boards laid vertically; vertically for boards laid horizontally.

If you are covering a plaster wall, first step is to locate the studs underneath. Note where the nailheads are in the base molding; they are undoubtedly anchored in the studs. If this procedure doesn't work, tap the wall and then drill small holes at those points where you get a "solid" sound. A magnetic "stud finder" is helpful.

With horizontal paneling, each board may be attached directly through the plaster to the studs. Vertical paneling may be attached to horizontal furring strips, which have been nailed previously to the studs at 2-foot intervals. The same procedure applies if you've built a new room partition as part of your project and want to panel it. Here, of course, since the studs are exposed, they don't have to be relocated.

Wood paneling can be anchored to studs or furring strips with either metal clips or nails. If you buy boards with grooved edges, adjoining pieces will overlap and hide the nails. Use finishing nails when it's necessary to go through from the face of the board. Drive the nails in below the surface with a nail set and then cover the spot with putty or tinted filler.

It is not always possible to install paneling that will fill in the space between floor and ceiling lines exactly. Therefore, you might consider base moldings that cover the gaps produced and enhance the beauty of the paneling.

Three kinds of natural finishes are possible. One is transparent surface film (varnish) and usually changes the color of the wood only slightly. A second type consists of a stain to color the wood and accentuate or mask grain patterns followed by a clear surface coating. A third type of finish is semi-transparent and contains a masking pigment. It is usually of the penetrating type.

Help Celebrate Broadway's 10th Birthday

Red Garter Band Music Resounds Over Broadway

"If there had been a roof on Broadway Shopping Center, it would have come off last Friday night," said B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

He was referring to the Broadway birthday cake party and the appearance of the famous Red Garter Band.

After merchants served cake, coffee and milk to the public, the Red Garter Band took off with some of the rhythms which have packed the people into their San Francisco hideaway for months.

A large crowd attended the party, and the refreshments, including cake, got an eager reception.

The music was that tingling-style which banjo-lovers prefer above all else.

Horne said, "I hope we won't have to wait another 10 years to have another party like that."

He added, "Our Broadway birthday celebration is not over, however. The birthday specials and the competition for king and queen continue on until Saturday, October 21.

However, if you want to vote for king and queen, do it by Friday, October 20," he said.

Suit Trends Flatter Men

The style picture for fall 1961 as portrayed by the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear, is a three-panel affair — in which three great basic model conceptions are presented to flatter the American man.

The newest is the American International — placed front and center in the panels and stirring wide interest across the country. The best of British, Continental and American styling features converge in this handsome suit model which incorporates such jacket details as slightly accented shoulder treatments — lapels that are a bit wider — fuller chest — and a slightly suppressed waist. The coat is a bit shorter, too, boasts a gracefully rounded cutaway front, hacking flap pockets and side vents.

The American International varies slightly from the British or "London Look," the principal difference being found at the lower part of the jacket. The British types have a less rounded, less cutaway front and slightly more flair at the back of the jacket.

The All-American Look combines the top styling features developed among domestic designers and favored by those with conservative taste — a trim and sophisticated silhouette, and slimming, pleatless trousers. Most have three-button treatments on the suit coat, though thanks to the influence of President Kennedy's personal preference, an increasing number of models now appear with two buttons.

Panel number 3 displays the Ivy model — authentic and classic — favored by men with youthful figures and youthful taste as a true American inspiration. Styling features include the straight hanging jacket with higher gorge and softer shoulders, flap pockets and center vent. The trousers are pleatless.

Affecting all three basic models is a strong current of British style influence — showing up in such details as slightly fuller lapels, waistline accenting, and less cutaway fronts. Other signs of the influence turn up in more generous chest lines and some flair of fullness at the skirt of the jacket.

Connors Not Renamed to Plan Board

The board of supervisors has voted unanimously to replace county planning commission chairman J. P. (Buck) Connors, a member since 1929.

Connors is 77, and although he has a Crockett address, he spends most of his time at his ranch in Calistoga, said supervisors.

Connors has been chairman since 1945.

New commissioner is J. P. Jennings, a retired Army colonel and resident of 900 El Rincon, Danville.

Mayor to Coronation

The boy and girl candidates rooms.

A special cake will be served, according to Mrs. Edith Apgar, of MacDonald Products Company.

A coronation and special program will be held for all candidates from area schools on that day in Capwell's executive also be provided for the public.

The king and queen, elected by public voting at the big birthday cake in front of Lucky Store, will have the other candidates as their attendants.

The girls will have tiaras and will carry flowers, to complete the ceremonial touch, Mrs. Sanders will crown the king and queen. George Webster, president of the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce, will be master-of-ceremonies.

The elementary school represented by the king and queen will receive $100 to purchase books for its library.

In addition, the Broadway merchants are donating $500 to the Walnut Creek Recreation Department, which is conducting the king and queen competition.

The money will be used for the department's youth program.

Apgar said.

The lucky pair will receive complete outfits provided by Broadway Shopping Center.

All candidates will receive a gift and their official "royal" photographs.

King, Queen's School Library to Receive Books

Your vote for a king and queen of the Broadway Shopping Center's 10th Birthday Party is also a vote to give those youngsters' own elementary school a supply of books donated by Broadway. While you are looking at Broadway's big birthday cake in front of Lucky Store, also see the pictures next to it of the 10-year-old boys and girls who are representing the area schools. Your neighbor's children may be among them. They're a cute bunch. The boy and girl elected king and queen will be honored at a luncheon for all candidates on Saturday, October 21, where a special cake will be awaiting them. Their public coronation will be held that day at 2:30 p.m. in front of the Lucky Store. Here are the candidates' names: Kathy Finke and Gerry Merten of Indian Valley School. Debbie Malone and Craig Meacham of Walnut Heights School. Leslie Maggy and Rod Lindberg of Parkmead School.

Dance Planned By Realtor Women

A Harvest Moon Dance will be held October 27 by the Women's Division of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board. It will begin at 9 p.m. at the Walnut Creek Elks Club on Crosscreek Road.

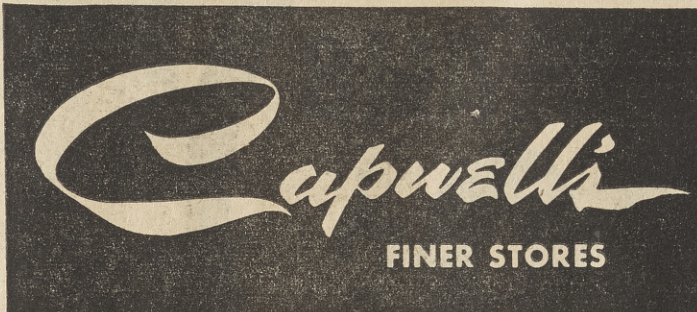

'Thanks,' Says Broadway On Its 10th Birthday

"On behalf of the 54 stores in Broadway Shopping Center, we, the merchants, want to thank you and other residents here for your wonderful support and patronage," said B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association. He added, "Your loyalty has contributed to making Broadway one of the most successful shopping centers in California. In return, Broadway merchants pledge to continue to offer the very latest and quality merchandise at competitive prices."

Horne said Broadway was the first major planned center in the East Bay and one of the first in California. And it has been rated one of the most successful in the nation. Among its 54 stores are the nation's leading merchandisers, as well as branches of famous regional firms. Contributing greatly to Broadway's success are many independent stores. "Most important are the people in Broadway who have made shopping there a pleasure by dint of their eagerness to serve and genuine interest in the customer's problem," Horne said.

Students to Scholarship Semi-Finals

Fifteen Acalanes High School district students have earned semifinalist honors in the seventh annual National Merit Scholarship competition.

Student winners are as follows:

Acalanes High: Sidney L. Hillyer, William C. Miller, Anders B. Swenson.

Las Lomas High: Thomas Blattner, Richard Carroll, Thomas Kelleway and Weller Phillips.

Miramonte High: Lee Bodkin, Joseph A. Ayers, Lance A. Chilton, Carol A. Troy, Diane G. Davidson, Nancy McKee.

Two other Miramonte students, Michael Eaton and David Deubner, who earned semifinalist honors while attending Miramonte, have since moved elsewhere.

Eaton is currently an American Field Service exchange student in Italy. Students at Del Valle High School were not included in the national competition since it does not yet have a senior class.

Acalanes Superintendent Neil M. Parsons said, "The semifinalist honor earned by these students is a tribute to their excellent work in school and a reflection of merit on their teachers as well."

"Having 15 students win achievement awards in a district with an enrollment the size of the Acalanes district is itself a type of merit commendation."

Each of the Acalanes district semifinalists now is a step closer to winning a four-year merit scholarship at the college of his choice.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation and sponsors have contributed financial assistance to 5000 students and their colleges since the program was started in 1955.

Sears Names Nine Citizen of Jubilee Year

Richard C. Knipe has been chosen by his fellow employees as the local "Sears Citizen of the Jubilee Year," it was announced today by Store Manager B. K. Horne.

In addition to receiving an award certificate from Charles H. Kellstadt, Sears chairman of the board, and Austin T. Cushman, vice president in charge of the company's operations on the Pacific Coast, Knipe received a valuable merchandise prize. His selection also qualifies him as a candidate for the grand prize, a three-day trip to Washington, D.C., which will be awarded at a later date.

MANAGER B. K. Horne stated that the purpose of the contest was to select the employee of the local store who has the most outstanding record in welfare, civic, governmental, religious or youth organizations.

Knipe, over a period of many years, has been closely identified with a number of community enterprises in the community of Canyon. He belongs to the Moraga Volunteer Fire Department, the Diablo Highway Federation, is a volunteer state fire warden, and is president of the Canyon Community Club.

In addition to these distinctions, Knipe is presently secretary of the Walnut Creek Junior Chamber of Commerce, having been one of the founders and charter members.

A major activity bringing great pride is one in which he acts as assistant scoutmaster of the third Handicapped Troop 228; his efforts in scouting have earned him the Star Scout Award. Knipe is affiliated with the St. Paul Lutheran Church.

In making the announcement, B. K. Horne added, "We are extremely pleased to be able to acknowledge and reward Dick Knipe for his unselfish service to our community. We are proud of all our employees who give generously of their time and energies to make their communities better places in which to live and work."

Road Controversy Simmers Down

A tensely awaited meeting of the Hacienda Homes Improvement Association last week ended on a calm note despite forecasts of controversy over El Toyonal.

According to Mrs. Jerome Donchin, who gave a report for the road committee, there was no blanket opposition to improvements for El Toyonal. Actual opposition, she said, boiled down to 13 homes, most of which are located on El Toyonal.

"WE ARE all agreed that something must be done about the road," she said, "and a new road committee will be appointed to work out a solution amenable to residents affected by the road."

The new committee will include members from both the opposition and the proponents for improving El Toyonal. This committee will attempt to resolve the differences of opinion and be ready with recommendations acceptable to all prior to a meeting with county officials November 1.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen had originally called for a meeting Monday night. However, this has been indefinitely postponed to permit the association's committee to work out a solution.

Meanwhile, Ted Rimer, who was elected association president at Monday's meeting, will send a questionnaire to all residents on El Toyonal, Loma Vista and Cedar in an effort to obtain a consensus.

HE HAS asked that anyone willing to serve on the road committee or anyone with suggestions or ideas regarding El Toyonal contact him at CL 4-3476.

Others elected Monday night and installed for the 1961-62 term are Art Jensen, vice president; Kathy O'Neal, secretary; and Ray Grazi, treasurer. Trustees elected are Paul Monser, Charles Hanks and Murray McNeil.

In other business the association membership, by unanimous vote, agreed to do nothing about the dam noise.

As a result of a meeting September 18 of the civic affairs committee of the Orinda Association with representatives of those concerned with the Briones Dam project, members of all improvement associations in the area had been asked to make a decision regarding means of cutting down the noise.
